ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

BY THE NUMBERS

136,320 TOTAL SQUARE FEET • 33 ACRES • 3 PRACTICE FIELDS • 3,300 SQUARE FOOT AUDITORIUM • 5,000 SQUARE FOOT LOCKER ROOM
7,900 SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM • 3,500 SQUARE FOOT DINING ROOM • 4,600 SQUARE FOOT MEDIA WORK ROOM & STUDIO

They grace the Bay area skyline as twin monuments to the power and passion of professional football: Raymond James Stadium, "The Crown Jewel of the NFL," and its partner in excellence, One Buccaneer Place, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers training facility.

Upon its opening in 2006, the Buccaneers' home was touted as the standard by which all future sports facilities would be measured, and it continues to awe visitors today. No effort was spared in the creation of the expansive complex, which is equipped with every modern amenity and the latest tools of the profession.

The team headquarters is a combination of function, style and space - much, much more space than the Buccaneers had previously enjoyed prior to the organization's move. The facility encompasses 136,320 square feet covering 33 acres and includes three meticulous practice fields behind the main buildings.

The facility raised the bar in every category of team preparation, from its massive locker room to the strength and conditioning center. Add in the team auditorium, media workroom and studio, a remarkably well-equipped team dining room and countless other features and you have one of the top team headquarters in the League.

"This facility gives our players, coaches and staff an unparalleled environment in which to work," said Buccaneers Co-Chairman Joel Glazer.

The signature of One Buccaneer Place is its spectacular entrance, which is adorned with the world's largest football. The sleek steel-and-glass construct is five stories tall, point to point, and angles against the main building as if it were on a tee, ready to start the game.

The two-story main building stretches away to both sides of the football centerpiece, fronted by appealing walls of glass that reflect notable features of Raymond James Stadium. Inside, the building is state-of-the-art in every way, from the rehabilitation pools in the training room to fully-integrated video equipment in every meeting room and coach's office. It is, simply, the ideal place to build a championship football team.

MALCOLM GLAZER

OWNER/PRESIDENT

When Malcolm Glazer triumphantly hoisted the Lombardi Trophy on January 26, 2003, after his Tampa Bay Buccaneers emphatically defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 in Super Bowl XXXVII, his celebratory smile signified to a world-wide audience that the Buccaneers had indeed arrived.

That world championship – the franchise's first in its then 27-year history – marked the fulfillment of a vow by Glazer and his family to not only restore the long-lost success of Tampa's much-beloved franchise, but to in fact, surpass all previous standards by capturing the team's first Super Bowl Championship.

A dynamic business leader, Glazer has, through his dedication and diligence, helped mold the Buccaneers into a model franchise, one respected league-wide and one other sports franchises endeavor to emulate.

Since being purchased by Glazer on January 16, 1995, the Buccaneers franchise has experienced a dramatic upswing in its fortunes, earning seven playoff berths, five playoff wins, and capturing its first Super Bowl championship. In 2005, the team notched its 100th overall victory with the Glazers at the helm. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers had won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting just a .300 winning percentage. In addition, the Buccaneers' have seen seven playoff appearances since 1999, whereas, previously, the franchise had advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-94.

Tampa Bay also eclipsed the club record for wins in a regular season with 12 in 2002. In fact, the top five single-season win totals in club history (12 in 2002, 11 in 2005, 11 in 1999, 10 in 2010, 10 in 2000 and 10 in 1997) have all come under Glazer's stewardship, and Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to play in the postseason each year from 1999 to 2002. The 2007 campaign saw the Buccaneers claim their third NFC South Division title in six years, the sixth division crown in franchise history. The three titles are tied for the most for any team in the division since its inception in 2002.

"Outside of the X's and O's, Mr. Glazer is why we're here," said former Pro Bowl Tampa Bay FB Mike Alstott. "He came in and built the franchise up, allowed us to get some players in here that cared about winning. It has to start from the owner if you're going to get anywhere and be competitive in this league."

The drive to the Super Bowl title began when Glazer hired Jon Gruden as the Buccaneers' seventh head coach in club history on February 18, 2002. Gruden, then one of the rising coaching stars in the National Football League, became the youngest head coach in league history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first veteran head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

With his first Super Bowl title in hand, Glazer set his sights on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training center. The new facility, considered the largest free-standing training structure of its kind in professional sports at the time, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006, following training camp.

The spectacular and innovative facility, which is located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, includes a breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall. One Buccaneer Place, as it is called, provides the ideal training environment to continue Tampa Bay's winning tradition.

"Just like our stadium, our new training facility and administrative offices are the finest in the NFL," Glazer says. "To ensure that our facility would be the best, we sent our football and administrative staffers to visit what we felt were the best NFL training facilities and, in some cases, the best collegiate facilities in the country. We instructed our people to take notes and photographs, and to design their respective areas the way they wanted them to be once the facility was finished. The information our people returned with was amazing. We then took that information, presented it to the architects, and let them create the NFL's best training facility."

In 2012, the Glazer family undertook the critical task of selecting the next head coach for the Buccaneers. The exhaustive search left no stone unturned in the hunt for the man most capable of maximizing the young team's talent, and when Greg Schiano's hire was announced on January 26, the move was hailed as an innovative and outside-the-box solution. Schiano, known for instilling integrity and discipline, joined the Buccaneers from Rutgers University, where he served as the head coach from 2001-11. Schiano was single-handedly credited with putting the program on the map. The Glazer family's decision signaled a commitment to moving the Buccaneers forward into a successful future.

Known among his league peers for years as a pioneering thinker, Glazer has infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization has provided the foundation for continued success, on and off the field. That success resulted in a vast and enthusiastic following that has been unmatched in franchise history.

Glazer has successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan, which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives, and a solid business partnership within the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's Raymond James Stadium, which has been dubbed the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike. In the fall of 2006, FoxSports.com named Raymond James Stadium the best in the National Football League. In addition, the stadium was rated as having the second-best natural grass turf in the League in 2010 and 2008, according to a biennial survey conducted of the league's players. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in four previous surveys, since RJS opened in 1998.

Glazer has devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly increasing fan activities at Buccaneer home games, through the expansion of the club's community relations and special events departments. His mandate to enhance the team's visibility in the community was reflected through increased appearances by Buccaneers players, coaches, cheerleaders and front office officials in recent years.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer says. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his tenure on the NFL's Finance Committee. He has also played a major role in Tampa becoming a host for the Super Bowl on several occasions. In May 2005, the Bay Area was awarded Super Bowl XLIII, marking the second time during Glazer's ownership the area welcomed the world's most spectacular event. Glazer played a significant role in helping to land each of the Super Bowls to Raymond James Stadium.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador award was presented to the Glazer Family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall. One very prominent example of the Glazer Family's impact in Tampa Bay in 2009 was the hosting of Super Bowl XLIII at Raymond James Stadium on February 1, 2009.

During the 1999 offseason, Glazer launched the much-anticipated Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the Tampa Bay community. In its 12 years of existence, the Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. The Foundation gifted $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum—The Glazer Children's Museum—in downtown Tampa, which opened on September 25, 2010. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, The Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in June 2011.

The Glazer Family Foundation continues to support a wide variety of community programs throughout the Tampa Bay area. The Foundation has donated grant money to more than 175 non-profit organizations, provided more than two million Buccaneer bookmarks to public libraries throughout seven Bay area counties and supplied 20,000 backpacks to more than 130 organizations for its back-to-school program. The Foundation has also played a crucial role in the continued development of two local NFL Y.E.T. Centers, recently supplying the funding for the newly constructed Glazer Family Fields at Jackson Heights and Mort Park. The Foundation's signature program is the one Glazer is most proud of: "Cheering You On!", which has distributed more than five hundred thousand teddy bears to hospitalized children throughout central Florida.

In 2009, the Glazer Family Foundation announced a new initiative to enhance the health and education of children throughout West Central Florida: the Vision Mobile. The Vision Mobile is an extension of the Glazer Family Foundation's Vision Program, a program to provide local schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified. Malcolm Glazer benefited from vision services as a student, and as a result he adopted the Vision Program in 2006 to ensure that local youth received vision screening support. From 2006-2009, the Foundation

- NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL ON THE GLAZER FAMILY -

"The Glazers, first and foremost, are a close family that is very devoted to family and family values. They are also, quite obviously, smart business managers and very successful in multiple arenas. They are engaging and fun to be around, and they give their time to league committees and issues that have helped us be a better league.

The Glazer family transformed the franchise after acquiring it in 1995. They have rebuilt it, given it a new look and created an entirely new and positive image. They put together an exciting winning team, including the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance and victory during the 2002 season when the Bucs beat the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Bucs have been in the playoffs seven times under the Glazers, won four division titles, and had six 10-win seasons.

They also have ensured that the entire Bucs organization plays a strong role in serving the community. The Glazers lead a model program and have produced a winning franchise on and off-the-field. The Glazers also provided tremendous leadership in the building of an outstanding new stadium and a first-class team facility. They have been very instrumental in bringing multiple Super Bowls to the Tampa Bay community, including the great Steelers-Cardinals game."

annually donated screening equipment to two county school systems within the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' market: Hillsborough and Pinellas (2006), Pasco and Sarasota (2007), Orange and Osceola (2008) and Manatee and Polk (2009). The Vision Mobile provides the next step in vision services to not only detect, but correct students' ability to see, providing comprehensive vision exams and prescription glasses to children at no charge.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have also included the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur sports activities. Glazer has committed $2 million dollars to the Commission.

In 2005, Glazer purchased the world's most popular and valuable sports team, Manchester United. The club has captured four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Born in Rochester, New York as one of seven children, Glazer took over the family watch-parts business at age 15 following the death of his father. A successful entrepreneur, Glazer first expanded the company, then continued his foray into the professional world, investing in other businesses. Glazer owns, has owned or has been a substantial shareholder of a diverse portfolio of international holdings and public companies, including: First Allied, Zapata Corporation, Houlihan's Restaurant Chain, Harley Davidson, Formica, Tonka, Specialty Equipment and Omega Protein.

A resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Glazer and his wife, Linda, have six children and 14 grandchildren.

BRYAN GLAZER CO-CHAIRMAN

Co-Chairman of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Bryan Glazer—entering his 18th year with the team in 2012—has helped revitalize the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer, who oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club, has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League and has become a community leader in the Bay area, recognized for his tremendous community work.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have posted 135 regular season wins and five playoff wins, one of the most successful stretches in club history. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers have seen seven playoff appearances since 1997. Prior to the Glazers' arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-94.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay has also claimed NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

In 2012, Glazer and his brothers undertook the critical task of selecting the next head coach for the Buccaneers. The exhaustive search left no stone unturned in the hunt for the man most capable of maximizing the young team's talent, and when Greg Schiano's hire was announced on January 26, the move was hailed as an innovative and outside-the-box solution. Schiano, known for instilling integrity and discipline, joined the Buccaneers from Rutgers University, where he served as the head coach from 2001-11. Schiano was single-handedly credited with putting the program on the map. The Glazer family's decision signaled a commitment to moving the Buccaneers forward into a successful future.

Glazer's commitment to the organization and the local community are also highlighted in the club's effort constructing Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001 and played host to Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. Glazer continues his commitment to bringing future Super Bowls to the area.

Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors during the construction of Raymond James Stadium to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers have notched an impressive 63-40 record in the regular season.

Glazer also worked diligently on the construction of One Buccaneer Place, the team's training facility and business operations center. The 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters, located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, is one of the finest in the National Football League. The signature feature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which includes the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall. The facility opened to rave reviews in August of 2006.

His innovative approach to business and penchant for "thinking outside the box" has resulted in the creation of the club's Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' sponsors with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer, along with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles, developed the Buccaneers' current logo and color scheme in 1996-97, following the family's purchase of the team. The new design, which was based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, marked the first significant change to the team logo and uniform in franchise history. Upon its successful unveiling on April 9, 1997, the logo garnered rave reviews from such media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, The New York Times and The Washington Post. Perhaps the ultimate testament to the effectiveness of the logo, which consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind-swept battle flag, is that it became – and remains – wildly popular among Buccaneers fans. Put simply, it exemplifies the brand of football played in Tampa Bay.

In addition to his business achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly related to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including, but not limited to, the team's first Super Bowl championship.

A native of Rochester, New York, the 47-year-old Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes regular community and charitable appearances on behalf of the Glazer Family Foundation, which in June 2011 was honored as Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Tampa Bay Sports Commission Sneaker Soiree. Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On!" "Prevent Blindness" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of those in which he takes great pride. Recently, the Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which opened on September 25, 2010 and is named the Glazer Children's Museum. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors of the Glazer Children's Museum, Glazer is also on the Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House. In spring of 2011, he served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball charity event.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989.

JOEL GLAZER CO-CHAIRMAN

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's business acumen. These attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 18th season with the Buccaneers, Co-Chairman Joel Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

His leadership has been more than validated, as evidenced by the Buccaneers' seven playoff berths and first NFL title – all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Co-Chairman, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a contender, but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed their first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also claimed the NFC South title in 2005 and 2007.

In 2012, Glazer and his brothers undertook the critical task of selecting the next head coach for the Buccaneers. The exhaustive search left no stone unturned in the hunt for the man most capable of maximizing the young team's talent, and when Greg Schiano's hire was announced on January 26, 2003, the move was hailed as an innovative and outside-the-box solution. Schiano, known for instilling integrity and discipline, joined the Buccaneers from Rutgers University, where he served as the head coach from 2001-11. Schiano was single-handedly credited with putting the program on the map. The Glazer family's decision signaled a commitment to moving the Buccaneers forward into a successful future.

As the franchise grew, Glazer, promising a "world-class facility," led the design for the current cornerstone of the club, a 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art team headquarters which opened to rave reviews in August 2006. Located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, One Buccaneer Place is one of the finest training facilities in the National Football League. The signature of the site is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have recorded 135 regular-season wins and five playoff wins, one of the most successful stretches in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers' have seen seven playoff appearances since 1997. Prior to the Glazers' arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-94.

Following the purchase of the team in 1995, Glazer directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office and recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Joel worked tirelessly alongside Bryan to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drew from their experiences as fans, and ultimately shaped every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums upon its opening, and continues to provide an exciting, innovative gameday experience to this day. The true signature of Raymond James Stadium is Buccaneer Cove, featuring the 103' larger-than-life replica pirate ship. With the pieces of the puzzle in place, as well as a state-of-the-art new stadium, the stage was set to put a final stamp on the rebirth of the franchise: a new look. Glazer, along with brother Bryan, worked closely with NFL Properties to create a dynamic look that would illustrate the attitude and class of the franchise. The result was a complete logo and uniform redesign and Buccaneers merchandise sales immediately soared throughout the country, vaulting them into the top echelon of NFL sales almost immediately. On the field, the new look helped create the attitude of a winner.

Throughout the construction of RJS, Glazer created the sales and marketing efforts that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate Pewter Partners sponsorship program, Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

Glazer also represents the team at all NFL Owners Meetings. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay area won the bid for Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which runs programs such as "Cheering You On!" "Prevent Blindness" and "Ticket Rewards." The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum, the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened September 25, 2010, and was recently named one of the Top Ten Family Museums in the country by Women's Day Magazine. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, The Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in June 2011. In addition to his community efforts, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International, NFL Finance and NFL Stadium committees.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador award was presented to the Glazer family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall. One very prominent example of the Glazer family's impact in Tampa Bay was the hosting of Super Bowl XLIII at Raymond James Stadium on February 1, 2009.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011) as well as the 2008 Champions League title. He was recently named as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by the Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native is married to his wife, Angela, and has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER CO-CHAIRMAN CO-PRESIDENT, GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Entering his 18th season with Tampa Bay in 2012, Co-Chairman Edward Glazer oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Recognizing that the fans are of the utmost importance to the team's success, Glazer sets the tone for Tampa Bay's commitment to its fans. In 2012, Glazer oversaw a complete overhaul of the team's marketing, sales and service departments. Glazer is dedicated to giving more people than ever the ability to become season pass members, offering an NFL first 10 month interest-free payment plan, $15 youth tickets and the creation of an all new Member Relations Department created exclusively for Buccaneers Season Pass Member to offer an array of off the field benefits and service unparalleled in the NFL. Glazer scrutinizes every detail of the business operations at One Buccaneer Place to ensure that fans are getting the best possible Buccaneers experience and value.

Glazer has dedicated himself to forward-thinking initiatives off the field—such as bolstering the team's website and social media capabilities. In 2011, the team also released its first app for all cell phones and in 2012 the Apple iPad. Glazer is dedicated to enhancing the game day experience for fans, down to the most critical details.

In addition to his passion for innovation, Glazer also treasures the Buccaneers' past. He spearheaded a massive project to digitally archive the entire photographic history of the franchise, which included the organization, captioning, rating and uploading of more than 100,000 images documenting the first 35 seasons.

In 2009, he oversaw the painstaking research needed in order to faithfully replicate the team's 1976 uniform, as Tampa Bay decided to pay tribute to the original designs that launched the franchise. Digging through historical archives and enlisting the help of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Glazer worked out every detail of the uniform's design from head to toe. The Buccaneers were re-adorned in Florida Orange for their first ever Throwback Game on October 8, 2009 – a win over Green Bay – and the annual event has become a fan favorite.

Glazer and his brothers, Joel and Bryan, worked closely on the design and construction of the team's new headquarters. One Buccaneer Place, a state-of-the-art complex sets the standard for team operation centers today and provides Tampa Bay with a word-class place to call home as the team moves forward.

In 2012, Glazer and his brothers undertook the critical task of selecting the next head coach for the Buccaneers. The exhaustive search left no stone unturned in the hunt for the man most capable of maximizing the young team's talent, and when Greg Schiano's hire was announced on January 26, the move was hailed as an innovative and outside-the-box solution. Schiano, known for instilling integrity and discipline, joined the Buccaneers from Rutgers University, where he served as the head coach from 2001-11. Schiano was single-handedly credited with putting the program on the map. The Glazer family's decision signaled a commitment to moving the Buccaneers forward into a successful future.

In addition to his attention to the Buccaneers, Glazer is also heavily involved in charitable endeavors. He is co-president of the Glazer Family Foundation and helps oversee Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On!," which provides every child admitted to local Bay area hospitals with a Buccaneers teddy bear and activity book. To date this program has given away almost five hundred thousand bears. In its 13 years of existence, the Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions.

In 2010 The Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa. This was made possible with the family's $5 million gift toward the construction of the facility, which opened to rave reviews, earning recognition by Women's Day Magazine as one of the Top 10 family museums in the country. For its wide-reaching efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree in 2011.

The Glazer family was also honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The award was presented to the Glazer family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area as well as their impact on the community overall, one very prominent example of which is the family's efforts to attract Super Bowls to Raymond James Stadium, including Super Bowls XLIII and XXXV.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are committed to providing aid and assistance in the community, supporting many causes, including the Zimmer Children's Museum, UCLA Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation, Cedars-Sinai Hospital, and the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital.

Glazer serves on the board of the family-owned Manchester United Soccer Club, the world's most popular team with over 660 million fans worldwide. The club has won the Premier League title in four of the seven seasons since the Glazer family purchased the team and has also been in three Champions league final matches, taking home the 2008 Champions League title. Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of First Allied Corporation, the family's holding company for real estate investments in more than 20 states.

Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and is a proud alum of Ithaca College, which opened the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena in 2011.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ

CO-PRESIDENT, GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Darcie Glazer Kasewitz, Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation, has worked tirelessly during her family's ownership of the team to ensure that the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' value to the community extends well beyond the playing field. She is a key asset in developing the Foundation's forward-thinking community efforts.

Established in 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes focusing on children and families in the West Central Florida region. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated millions of dollars in support of this cause.

The Glazer Family Foundation's Vision Program was an initiative starting in 2006 to provide schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified in school at an early age. To date, the Foundation has donated Vision Screening Equipment to eight counties in West Central Florida. The Vision Mobile, spearheaded by Kasewitz in 2009, provides the final step in vision services to correct these students' inability to see clearly by providing free eye exams and prescription eyeglasses to children at Title One schools. The Vision Mobile visits the schools and provides eye examinations to thousands of disadvantaged children.

To start every home Tampa Bay Buccaneers game, Kasewitz meets with children from local community groups on the field prior to kickoff as part of the Foundation's Gameday For Kids program. To date, the Foundation has hosted more than 12,800 youth at Raymond James Stadium, who come from organizations throughout the Bay area. Participating kids are rewarded for academic achievement and positive behavior with free game tickets, food vouchers and battle flags. The youth receive this privilege based on achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by community agencies.

With a lead gift, the Glazer Family Foundation is proud to have the new world class Glazer Children's Museum in Tampa, Florida as part of their ongoing dedication to children and families. A new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders, the Children's Museum opened on September 25, 2010 to rave reviews. This one-of-a-kind museum instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay, providing 53,000-square feet of space for safe and playful learning.

On the football side, Kasewitz has used her creative expertise to help shape the Buccaneers' world-class facilities. Kasewitz set out to design a football stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. She visited different stadiums and facilities throughout the NFL and ultimately shaped every detail of the interior of Raymond James Stadium. She also designed and implemented expansive club levels, luxury suites and the Lower Galley restaurant. A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL."

Tampa Bay's training facility, which opened to high praise from across the National Football League in August 2006, is a technological marvel and sets a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. Kasewitz oversaw the entire interior design process for the team's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, which encompasses the daily functions for all of the Buccaneers' football and business operations.

One of the signatures of the Training facility is the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Museum, which was designed and produced by Kasewitz. The museum brings the Buccaneers' history to life, including in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise. Featured displays explore the creation of the team's uniform and logo, a description of Buccaneers head coaches since the team's inception in 1976, and the organization's move to Raymond James Stadium and One Buccaneer Place. Additional exhibits explain the history of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders, the establishment of the Glazer Family Foundation, and the continual efforts by Buccaneers players to make an impact in the community. Included are features dedicated to the Buccaneers' Super Bowl victory, including special exhibits showcasing the Lombardi Trophy and Super Bowl ring earned in Super Bowl XXXVII.

The lobby also includes the spectacular Moment of Victory sculpture exhibit, which depicts the moment when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship and commemorates Tampa Bay's victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. Kasewitz not only came up with the concept for the sculptures, but oversaw the design and creation of this one-of-a-kind exhibit.

In January 2011, Kasewitz launched the new Glazer Family Foundation's web site, GlazerFamilyFoundation.org, providing site visitors with a more forward-thinking, engaging tool to better assist community agencies. The site's new structure and design, overseen from start to finish by Kasewitz, presents faster, enhanced devices to better direct community members to Foundation programs, news and events. Its appealing design also sets it apart as a fun, welcoming destination for charitable groups, children and families alike.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Glazer Family Foundation, she has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Palm Beach. Kasewitz also serves on the Board of Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured five titles since the Glazer family took over the club: four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kasewitz graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990. She also earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993. She is also a member of the New York State Bar Association.

The Glazer Family Foundation was established in 1999 to better the lives of children and families by establishing lasting, impactful programs throughout Florida communities. Since that time, the Foundation has given millions of dollars in programs, grants, tickets and merchandise to the Tampa Bay area. Most recently, the Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in down-

BUCCANEERS FOR BACK-TO-SCHOOL

The Buc-Packs for Back-to-School program provides Buccaneers backpacks filled with school supplies to children throughout Central Florida. In 2011, children from over 63 community groups received a total of 3,500 backpacks during the team's training camp. To date, more than 20,000 bags have been given away to charities throughout the region.

CHEERING YOU ON!

The Cheering You On! program provides teddy bears to children in eight hospitals throughout Central Florida, lifting patients' spirits and making their stay more cheerful. To date, the Foundation has donated nearly 454,000 Buccaneers teddy bears to young patients.

COLLECTION DRIVES

During the 2011 season, the Glazer Family Foundation teamed up with Buccaneers fans from the Bay area to support charitable causes through gameday collection drives. Before five different home games, fans donated a variety of items including canned food, school supplies, toys, animal supplies and items for the military to help those in need.

- Military Supply Drive to benefit Support Our Troops and U.S. armed forces overseas
- School Supply Drive to benefit Hillsborough and Pinellas County Schools
- "Sack Hunger" Drive to benefit Agape Food Bank, Feeding America Tampa Bay, Metropolitan Ministries and RCS Food Bank
- Pet Supply Drive to benefit the Humane Societies of Tampa Bay and Pinellas
- Toys for Tots Drive to benefit underprivileged children through the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots program

ENTERPRISE VILLAGE

The Foundation is the official sponsor of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers store in Enterprise Village, at the Stavros Institute, providing financial support and merchandise for the program. Each year, Enterprise Village hosts more than 11,000 students from public and private schools who spend the day learning about the free enterprise system in the hands-on, interactive marketplace.

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

GAMEDAY FOR KIDS

At each home game, the Foundation hosts 100 deserving youth through the Gameday for Kids program. More than 12,800 children representing over 100 organizations from the Bay area have been rewarded with free tickets, food and Buccaneers flags for achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by their community agencies.

GRANT PROGRAM

The Glazer Family Foundation awards grants to local nonprofits to help fund programs that focus on the welfare of underserved youth. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated more than $600,000 in grants to Central Florida charities.

HOLIDAY SHOPPING SPREE

Since 2000, the Foundation has hosted an annual event to provide a happy holiday season for needy children. In recent years, the popular holiday shopping spree has given hundreds of underserved children the opportunity to select clothing, toys and personal items thanks to the help of Buccaneers staff, Cheerleaders, Captain Fear and the Women's Organization.

TAMPA BAY SPORTS COMMISSION

The Glazer Family Foundation has donated almost $1 million to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission for its support of amateur athletic activities in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. The Sports Commission uses the funds to support annual events, including all-star football, soccer and basketball games for Bay area students, as well as its local High School Football Combine, which helps high school athletes earn college scholarships.

VISION PROGRAM

In 2009, the Vision Program was enhanced with the introduction of the Glazer Family Foundation Vision Mobile. That initiative now continues in its fourth year of providing the next step in vision services: not only detecting issues with students' ability to see, but correcting them. Following the initial school screenings, students from Title 1 schools who are recommended for additional testing will have it performed on the Vision Mobile, which travels throughout Central Florida to offer on-site service. Certified doctors provide comprehensive vision exams and prescription glasses to children at no charge. It is the Foundation's goal to not only provide these services to children who cannot see clearly, but to those who would not otherwise have access to the exams or be able to afford new glasses. Throughout 2011, the Vision Mobile provided eye examinations and glasses to 1,500 disadvantaged children in Central Florida.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers remained champions in the community throughout 2011. Thanks to the efforts of current and former players, coaches, front office staff and their families, the Buccaneers led the way in ensuring Central Florida's underserved populations continued to develop into a more positive, structured community.

Throughout the year, nearly 1,000 nonprofit organizations benefitted from the charitable endeavors of the Buccaneers. Whether through team donations, engaging community initiatives, NFL outreach programs, or one of the hundreds of appearances for which players and coaches volunteered their time, team members ensured the Buccaneers continued their strong tradition of giving back.

BUCCANEERS DAY OF GIVING

In 2011, the Buccaneers surprised 30 families with holiday presents, Publix and Hess gift cards, a shopping spree and more during the team's Day of Giving. The event featured players, cheerleaders and Captain Fear surprising underprivileged families with gifts during the holiday season.

FATHER'S DAY KITCHEN COACHING

In honor of Father's Day, the Buccaneers provided "Kitchen Coaching" for five families from the Jack & Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation. The event offered a memorable and rewarding experience for families with a mother battling late stage, limited life expectancy cancer.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATION

In 2011, the Buccaneers and Publix hosted a Halloween Celebration for over 700 disadvantaged youth. Children joined the Buccaneers' rookie class, cheerleaders and Captain Fear for a night of fun and games at the Lowry Park Zoo, where they took part in haunted houses, arts and crafts, trick-or-treating, rides and more.

LACE IT UP FOR KIDS

In 2011, the Buccaneers helped over 600 local youth kick off the school year on the right foot with the third annual Lace It Up For Kids shoe giveaway. Buccaneers players, cheerleaders and Captain Fear welcomed the children to training camp where they selected brand new shoes purchased by the Buccaneers. In total, more than 1,600 children have received new shoes through the program.

MOTHER'S DAY MAKEOVERS

The Buccaneers gave away a once-in-a-lifetime experience to five mothers from Central Florida for the team's Mother's Day Makeovers program. In honor of Mother's Day, the team provided a day of pampering, a new wardrobe and an evening out with family members for five deserving women.

PLAY 60

In 2011, the Buccaneers promoted the Play 60 initiative of being active for at least 60 minutes a day through a variety of school visits, team events and NFL programs. The team also dedicated the second Buccaneers Fitness Zone at Carver Exceptional Center in Tampa, which included a new court cover and athletic equipment to support students who battle a wide variety of challenges.

ROAD TO SUCCESS

The Buccaneers surprised Christina Salatino with a new car through the Buccaneers' Road to Success initiative. Salatino, who overcame significant challenges in her life and is dedicated to empowering others, was selected out of 180 applicants who were nominated for the 2011 program.

ROOKIE CLUB

The Buccaneers Rookie Club was established in 2001 as a way to help the rookie class learn about each other and their new community through charitable outreach. The Rookie Club's annual efforts include hosting a bowling outing for foster kids, volunteering at Metropolitan Ministries, visiting patients at All Children's Hospital, and singing holiday carols for residents at a local retirement home.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

The 2011 Buccaneers Student Ambassadors included a team of 40 motivated high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who created Buccaneers spirit in their schools and worked as customer service representatives for Buccaneers home games. During their one-year terms, students had the opportunity to tour the team's training facility, learn from important guest speakers at monthly meetings and participate in Buccaneers community events.

TICKET PROGRAMS

At every home game, Buccaneers players, coaches and executives host a number of charitable groups and school children. These special guests are part of the Buccaneers' ticket programs, which provide participants with front-row end-zone seats, custom t-shirts, food vouchers and the opportunity to be featured as a group on BucVision during the game.

TURKEY TIME WITH THE O-LINE

For the past five years, the Buccaneers' offensive line and Publix Supermarkets have teamed up to provide Thanksgiving meals for less fortunate families through the annual Turkey Time with the O-Line. Sponsored by the team's offensive line, the event transforms the Buccaneers' facility into a drive-up service where nearly 3,000 families have received a full turkey dinner in time for the holidays.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION

The Buccaneers Women's Organization consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of Buccaneers players, coaches and front-office staff members. Throughout the year, the Women's Organization participates in charitable functions and community service projects in the Bay area. The group's 2011 outreach efforts included sorting food at Metropolitan Ministries and participating in a Holiday Shopping Spree for underprivileged youth.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

Throughout 2011, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers continued their commitment to breast cancer awareness and supporting the NFL's "A Crucial Catch" campaign. The team incorporated many awareness elements into its Breast Cancer Awareness game, such as distributing pink ribbons to fans as they entered the stadium, having children of breast cancer survivors lead the team onto the field during pre-game introductions, and recognizing a family battling breast cancer as the team's honorary captains. Buccaneers cheerleaders also lined the field in pink uniforms while players, coaches and referees wore pink apparel, which was later auctioned off to benefit the American Cancer Society.

In conjunction with breast cancer awareness month, the Buccaneers and the NFL also donated $5,000 to My Hope Chest, a nonprofit organization that assists uninsured women with reconstructive surgery post-mastectomy. Linebacker Adam Hayward, who lost his mother to breast cancer, continued to be an active spokesman for breast cancer awareness. For his involvement in fundraising and support for research to combat the deadly disease, he was named Ambassador for the Florida Suncoast Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. Among Hayward's many efforts was his role in filming a public service announcement that encouraged early detection of cancer through mammograms.

BRIAN FORD*VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Brian A. Ford, Jr. joined the Buccaneers in 2006 and is entering his fourth full season as vice president of business administration after previously serving as director of business administration. He oversees all day-to-day business operations for the organization.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the district manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

Ford served as an executive committee member for the Super Bowl Host Committee for Super bowl XLIII in 2009 and currently serves on the Board of the Ronald McDonald House, the Florida Sports Foundation and Tampa Bay & Company.

Ford, a native of Miramar, Florida, graduated from Florida State in 1989 with a B.S. in business administration. He is an avid runner and triathlete and competes in numerous events each year, including a marathon each of the past seven years and a 70.3 Half Ironman the past two years.

He and his wife, Judy, live in Tampa with their sons Brian III and Brandon. The couple is celebrating their 23rd wedding anniversary in August. Judy is an active member of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which hosts charitable functions and community service projects in Tampa Bay throughout the year.

JOIN THE FIGHT.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers host a wide variety of youth football programs throughout the year, including the Buccaneers' Play 60 Challenge, Gatorade Junior Training Camp and the NFL Punt, Pass and Kick program. These initiatives not only help children and their families enjoy the game of football, but also serve as a resource for coaches to help promote a positive experience for youth football participants.

Through additional efforts, including the USA Football month celebration during a Buccaneers preseason game, hosting the USA Football State Forum, and creating the Buccaneers University Student-Athlete Transition Program, the Buccaneers are dedicated to educating children and coaches about the National Football League and enhancing the skills of youth, both on and off the field.

MARK DOMINIK GENERAL MANAGER

In his 18 seasons working with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, General Manager Mark Dominik has been a member of the football administration staff from his beginnings in 1995 as a pro personnel assistant to, in 2012, entering his fourth season as the club's general manager. He has played a large role in guiding and shaping Tampa Bay through some of its best moments, including seven playoff appearances, four division titles, and a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVI.

Dominik was named the fourth general manager in Buccaneers history on January 17, 2009, and he quickly gained, and has kept, a reputation as one of the league's top talent evaluators and most astute dealers. He is known for having a keen and discerning eye relating to late-round draft picks, in addition to fully utilizing the "second draft" — bringing in fresh contributors through undrafted free agency and scouring the waiver wire and opposing teams' practice squads for other valuable additions.

This year has already proven to be busy for Dominik, as he kicked off free agency by bringing in a trio of talented new assets. Within the first 24 hours, the Buccaneers welcomed WR Vincent Jackson, a two-time Pro Bowler coming off a 1,000+-yard season with the San Diego Chargers, another two-time Pro Bowler in G Carl Nicks — lured away from division-rival New Orleans — and former Detroit CB Eric Wright, a playmaker for Tampa Bay's secondary. In addition, the Buccaneers added talent and depth by bringing in Pro Bowl TE Dallas Clark, QB Dan Orlovsky, DT Amobi Okoye and DT Gary Gibson.

Dominik did not stop after an active free agency, however, and moved on to overseeing an incredibly productive draft in which he was able to make several savvy trades in order to assemble the 2012 draft class. By trading down only two places from the fifth overall pick to seventh overall, Dominik managed to still nab S Mark Barron, the Buccaneers' targeted first-round selection, while also acquiring a draft choice that he parlayed to move back into the first round to select RB Doug Martin, and then, again, to jump back into the second round to pick LB Lavonte David.

Using Dominik's bold approach, Tampa Bay was rewarded this offseason with one of the most highly regarded free agency and draft classes in the league.

In 2011, Tampa Bay's draft class included the likes of DE Adrian Clayborn, DE Da'Quan Bowers, LB Mason Foster, and TE Luke Stocker—all of whom saw time as starters during the season. Clayborn recorded a team-high 7.5 sacks, the second-most sacks in a season by a rookie in team history and the second-most among all rookie defensive linemen in the league in 2011. Foster also had a strong season, starting 15 games and leading the team with 126 tackles, a mark that also placed him as the tackle leader amongst all rookies in the league.

Dominik's 2010 draft proved itself on the field during its rookie season, where seven of the nine picks recorded at least one start, with the draft class recording a total of 49 starts on the season. In fact, WR Mike Williams, a fourth-round selection, started all 16 games his rookie season, leading all rookie receivers in the league in receptions (65, second on the team), yards (964, first on the team), and receiving touchdowns (11, single-season team record). Williams was a finalist for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and finished second in voting for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Dominik's first-ever draft pick in 2009 brought QB Josh Freeman to Tampa Bay, where, in his first season as a starter in 2010, the Kansas State product finished the year as the sixth-ranked passer in the league while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions, ranking him ninth for the best touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history.

In addition to his draft classes, Dominik's exceptional nose for hidden talent has also brought many undrafted gems to Tampa Bay throughout the years, including RB LeGarrette Blount. Blount, an undrafted rookie free agent acquired off waivers from Tennessee in 2010, became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to record a 1,000+-yard season when he finished with 1,007 yards, despite starting only seven games, and was nominated for the NFL's Rookie of the Week award on five occasions. Other notable Buccaneers unearthed by Dominik include DL Michael Bennett, WR Preston Parker, T Demar Dotson and C/G Ted Larsen. In total, Dominik's second draft additions have accounted for 44 starts over three seasons.

Dominik was also a major factor in addition to re-signings of key free agent such Pro Bowl T Donald Penn and Pro Bowl G Davin Joseph.

Dominik joined the Buccaneers' staff in June 1995 as a pro personnel assistant. He served in that capacity through the 1997 season, before assuming the title of pro scout in 1998 and coordinator of pro personnel in 2000.

Prior to the start of the 2001 season, Dominik began the first of his eight years as Tampa Bay's Director of Pro Personnel. In 2002, Dominik helped guide the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland.

As Director of Pro Personnel, his duties included overseeing the scouting, recruiting and signing efforts of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. He was also in charge of the Pro Personnel department's evaluation of players in all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League, while being responsible for the negotiation and signing of contracts for several free agents and NFL Draft signings.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Dominik joined Tampa Bay after spending a year and a half working in both the college and pro personnel departments of the Kansas City Chiefs. Dominik holds a bachelor of science degree in education/sports management from the University of Kansas.

Since being named General Manager in 2009, Dominik has placed an added emphasis on bringing awareness to issues affecting local military. Having a father and brother who both served in the Navy, Dominik has focused his community outreach on working with war veterans and all branches of service. In December 2011, Dominik and the Buccaneers partnered with Rebuilding Together Tampa Bay – a local nonprofit dedicated to facilitating residential housing rehabilitation programs for very low and low income families – and donated $40,000 toward a home renovation for a local retired military member dealing with serious medical issues. Dominik is also an auxiliary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4321 and has established a close relationship with the James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital where he regularly visits wounded warriors and volunteers with their "Helping Hands" program. During the season, Dominik sponsors "Dominik's Den," a ticket program that provides a special game day experience for military servicemen and women. For his tireless dedication, Dominik was honored in 2012 as a finalist for the USAA Salute to Service Award, given to members of the NFL community who have shown exceptional efforts to honor and support US service members and veterans.

Dominik is also committed to foster care and adoption awareness, having worked closely with Hillsborough Kids, Inc. while participating in National Adoption Day events. He has also served as the spokesman for the Children's Home Society campaign "Let's Tackle This" to increase the number of foster parents in Tampa Bay.

In addition, Dominik has been an active contributor to All Pro Dad, the fatherhood program of Family First that features NFL coaches, players and alumni who speak out about the importance of fatherhood, giving men the tools they need to make a positive difference in the lives of their children and families. In both 2011 and 2012, Dominik hosted the annual Buccaneers All Pro Dad Father & Kids Experience at Raymond James Stadium, providing an interactive event for family bonding.

As General Manager, Dominik has made numerous other appearances in the Tampa Bay community, including as an annual participant in the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation.

Dominik resides in Tampa with his wife, Amy, their son, Davis, and daughters, Emerson and Avery. Amy is an active member of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which hosts charitable functions and community service projects in Tampa Bay throughout the year. The Dominiks support organizations including A Woman's Place, Children's Center for the Visually Impaired (CCVI), Family First and World Vision.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers proudly supported our nation's armed forces throughout the year. The team held its annual Military Appreciation game, which included a pregame collection drive to gather supplies for military personnel stationed overseas, U.S. Special Operations Command para-commandos parachuting into the stadium, and U.S. Army Reserve soldiers leading the team onto the field. Buccaneers players also joined members of the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office, firefighters of Central Florida, and MacDill Air Force Base's Special Operations Command and 6th Air Mobility Wing in the presentation of a full-field American flag during the national anthem in honor of the 10th anniversary of the events of September 11.

The Buccaneers' military appreciation efforts also extend well beyond the football field. Among the team's many initiatives were visits to James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital in Tampa to spend time with servicemen and women recovering from injury and illness, as well as multiple events with players and cheerleaders at MacDill Air Force Base for hundreds of active duty servicemen and women stationed in Tampa. General Manager Mark Dominik also announced the team's donation of $40,000 towards a home renovation project for U.S. Air Force Staff Sergeant Andreas Bernt, who is confined to a wheelchair due to serious medical challenges. Bernt, who originally enlisted in the Air Force in 1980 at the age of 19, served 10 years as a firefighter and emergency rescue responder, including overseas service in Germany. After being honorably discharged from the Air Force, Bernt served in a similar capacity as a civilian at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa for 18 years.

Mark Dominik greets each group from the "Dominik's Den" ticket program on the field before home games at Raymond James Stadium. The program provides a special gameday experience for military servicemen and women.

GREG SCHIANO*HEAD COACH*4TH NFL SEASON*1ST WITH BUCCANEERS*1ST AS HEAD COACH

Named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 27, 2012, Greg Schiano enters his first season at the helm of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012.

This will mark the fourth season of NFL experience for Schiano, who also brings to Tampa Bay a wealth of experience from his 21 seasons working amongst the college ranks.

Schiano joins the Buccaneers from his previous position as the head coach of Rutgers University, where he served 11 years, transforming the Scarlet Knights from an unknown into a consistently winning and respected program.

Under his leadership, Rutgers – which had advanced to a postseason bowl just once in the team's previous 135-year history – developed a new tradition of not only competing in, but also winning, bowl games. In his final seven seasons with the team, Schiano's Scarlet Knights qualified for six bowls and recorded five consecutive bowl victories.

In 2011, the Scarlet Knights concluded a season in which they very narrowly missed out on a share of the Big East championship. The team's defense, called by Schiano, led the conference in total defense, with LB Khaseem Greene also leading the Big East in tackles with 127. WR Mohamed Sanu set school and Big East single-season records with 109 receptions for 1,444 yards and seven touchdowns. Sanu's 1,000-yard season marked only the fifth time in school history that a Scarlet Knight receiver has reached such a mark, and each of the five came during Schiano's tenure with Rutgers.

Rutgers' rise to national prominence under Schiano began in the 2005 season, where the team made its first postseason bowl appearance since 1978. In 2006, the Scarlet Knights took the next step, putting together a sensational season, winning 11 games and concluding with a No. 12 ranking in the national polls and a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history.

For his architecture of such a prodigious turnaround, Schiano was honored with 2006 Coach of the Year accolades from every major college football awards outlet, including the Football Writers Association of America, The Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Maxwell Club, and the titles of Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year.

Schiano's aptitude for developing young players has translated into NFL success for many of his former charges. He was responsible for developing 17 NFL draft picks as Rutgers' head coach, including 13 in the last five drafts. During his years coaching collegiately, Schiano helped produce more than 50 players who went on to professional careers.

In 2009, WR Kenny Britt became Rutgers' inaugural first-round NFL Draft pick when he was selected by the Tennessee Titans with the 30th overall pick. Britt was the first of a school-record five Scarlet Knights selected in that year's draft. The next year, Schiano's players continued to make their names known, with two men – T Anthony Davis (San Francisco, 11th overall) and CB Devin McCourty (New England, 27th overall) – being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Other notable current and former professional players groomed under Schiano's leadership include LB Gary Brackett, RB Ray Rice, LB Jonathan Vilma, S Ed Reed, and LB Dan Morgan, among others. In 2010, 32 of Schiano's Scarlet Knights played on an NFL roster, including seven players from the 2009 squad.

Two former Rutgers players from Schiano's tenure have earned Super Bowl rings over the past six years. Brackett served as a captain of the Super Bowl XLI Champion Indianapolis Colts, and Darnell Stapleton started at right guard on Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XLIII Championship team.

Schiano is known for impacting more than simply his players' performances on the field, however, as he accrued a reputation while at Rutgers for attracting high-character students and pushing his team to academic success. Rutgers football achieved the nation's No. 1 ranking in Academic Progress Rate in 2010, and the nation's No. 2 mark in 2011. For the fourth consecutive year, the Rutgers football team was ranked in the top three nationally in multi-year APR rates, becoming the only university in the entire nation to earn that prestigious honor.

Prior to heading up Rutgers' program, Schiano served two seasons (1999-00) as defensive coordinator with the Miami Hurricanes. While with the Hurricanes, the team posted a 20-5 record, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 ranking and a Sugar Bowl victory in 2000.

The 'Canes showed rapid improvement under Schiano, as the team closed out the 1999 season by not allowing a passing touchdown in 27 quarters and was ranked 12th nationally in scoring defense (17.2). In 2000, Miami surrendered just 15.5 points per game, the fifth-best mark in the nation and the fewest allowed by any team in the Big East. In those two seasons, Schiano also helped the team to finish in the top five in total takeaways, amassing 35 in 1999 (third in the nation) and 33 in 2000 (fifth in the nation).

Schiano served three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears as a defensive assistant (1996-97) and later defensive backfield coach (1998), and also spent six seasons at Penn State as a graduate assistant (1990) and defensive backfield coach (1991-95).

Schiano – born in Wyckoff, N.J. on June 1, 1966 – is a 1988 graduate of Bucknell University, where he was a three-year letterman at linebacker. He and his wife, Christy, are the proud parents of four children: Joey, John, Matt and Katie.

BILL SHERIDAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Bill Sheridan begins his first season with the Buccaneers – and eighth overall in the league – in 2012, where he will serve as defensive coordinator.

Sheridan, a 31-year coaching veteran, joins Tampa Bay following two seasons (2010-11) coaching linebackers with the Miami Dolphins.

As a member of Miami's defensive staff, Sheridan helped lead a formidable linebacking corps that included Cameron Wake, Jason Taylor, Karlos Dansby and Kevin Burnett. Wake recorded 22.5 sacks in the two seasons under Sheridan's instruction, including 14.0 in 2010, which ranked third in the NFL, was the eighth highest total in Dolphins franchise history and helped make way for Wake's Pro Bowl berth. In 2011, Burnett and Dansby each recorded over 100 tackles, 2.0 sacks and 10 tackles for loss.

Prior to his stint in Miami, Sheridan served five seasons with the New York Giants as linebackers coach (2005-08) and defensive coordinator (2009). He helped mold middle linebacker Antonio Pierce into a Pro Bowler and leader of the 2007 Super Bowl Championship defensive unit.

In 2007, the Giants ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense, eighth in rushing defense and 11th in passing defense, while leading the league in sacks. The unit then had a dominant four-game run in the playoffs, allowing a postseason-low 16.3 points per game. The season culminated with a victory in Super Bowl XLII over the New England Patriots, where the Giants held the highest-scoring offense in NFL history to just 14 points.

The following season the Giants' defense improved to fifth overall, ninth in rushing defense and eighth in passing defense. In Sheridan's lone season as the defensive coordinator, the Giants ranked 13th in total defense, 14th against the rush and 15th versus the pass.

Other Giants linebackers who benefitted from Sheridan's tutelage included Carlos Emmons, Brandon Short, LaVar Arrington, Kawika Mitchell, Chase Blackburn and Mathias Kiwanuka, whom Sheridan guided through a transition from defensive end.

Before joining the professional coaching ranks, Sheridan had extensive coaching experience with some of the most iconic collegiate football programs, having served as linebackers coach (2002) and defensive line coach (2003-04) with Michigan, safeties and special teams coach (2001) with Notre Dame and linebackers coach (1998-2000) with Michigan State.

In his time at Michigan, the team carried a 29-9 record, while earning two trips to the Rose Bowl and a 2002 victory over Florida in the Outback Bowl. They also finished ranked in the AP Top 25 in all three seasons (No. 9 in 2002, No. 6 in 2003 and No. 14 in 2004). He helped coach LB Victor Hobson and DT Gabe Watson to All-Big 10 honors.

In his one year directing the safeties at Notre Dame, he helped tutor Gerome Sapp and Abram Elam, who both went on to NFL careers.

In 1999, Sheridan coached under Nick Saban as Michigan State went on to a 10-2 record, a No. 7 national ranking, and a win over Florida in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Sheridan began his coaching career at Shrine High School in Royal Oak, Michigan, from 1981-84. He was then a graduate assistant at Michigan for two seasons before coaching linebackers at three schools - Maine, Cincinnati and Army - from 1987-95. In 1996 and 1997, Sheridan coached the defensive backs at West Point.

Sheridan is a native of Detroit, Michigan, and earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State University. He and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joe, Nick, Mark and Natalie.

MIKE SULLIVAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Sullivan joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012 for his first season with the team, working as offensive coordinator.

Sullivan's position in Tampa Bay comes on the heels of a successful eight-season stretch with the New York Giants, during which time he coached teams to world championships in both Super Bowl XLII and Super Bowl XLVI.

For the past two seasons (2010-11), Sullivan was responsible for coaching the Giants quarterbacks, including Eli Manning. Under Sullivan's tutelage, Manning achieved two of the best seasons in the league during that time, culminating in Super Bowl XLVI MVP honors. In 2011, Manning set a single-season franchise record in completions (359) and passing yards (4,933), which also ranked as the sixth-highest mark in NFL history. He was nominated to the 2012 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl and set the NFL record for most fourth-quarter touchdown passes in a season with 15. In two seasons with Sullivan as his position coach, Manning compiled the top two single-season completion totals and two of the top five passing yards and touchdown pass marks in Giants history.

Before working with quarterbacks, Sullivan instructed the Giants wide receivers for six seasons.

In 2009, his group of wideouts caught 236 passes – of which WR Steve Smith had 107, breaking the franchise record for receptions and becoming the first Giants wide receiver to be nominated to the Pro Bowl in 41 years.

In four seasons under Sullivan's direction, WR Plaxico Burress had 244 catches, placing him 12th on the club's career list, for 3,681 receiving yards and 33 touchdown receptions. Burress recorded 10 of those touchdowns in 2006 and 12 the following season, becoming the first Giant since Del Shofner in 1961-62 to post back-to-back seasons with 10 or more touchdown catches. He also was responsible for the game-winning receptions in Super Bowl XLII.

Sullivan has a wide range of coaching experience and ability, having also coached the defensive side of the ball with the Jacksonville Jaguars as a defensive quality control coach in 2002 before becoming the team's offensive assistant in 2003.

He joined the Jaguars after nine years coaching collegiately, beginning his career at Humboldt State in 1993 before stints at Army (1995-96, 1999-2000), Youngstown State (1997-98) and Ohio (2001).

While at Youngstown State in 1997, Sullivan coached under Jim Tressel as the Penguins won the Division 1-AA National Championship. At Ohio, he coached the defensive backs and tutored the kick blocking units on special teams.

Sullivan played defensive back at Army while completing his bachelor of science degree. He later earned his master's from Humboldt State, and is furthermore a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault schools. Sullivan also holds a Blue Belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

Sullivan, a native of Santa Maria, California, is married to Julie. The couple has two daughters: Carmen Enriqueta and Hope Carolyn.

BOB LIGASHESKY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Bob Ligashesky begins his first season serving as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' special teams coordinator in 2012.

Ligashesky previously worked as special teams coach for Jacksonville (2004), St. Louis (2005-06), and Pittsburgh (2007-09), and was special teams assistant in Oakland in 2011 after having spent the 2010 campaign as Denver's tight ends coach.

During his tenure in Pittsburgh, Ligashesky's units played a pivotal role in the Steelers' 2008 championship season. That year, the team led the NFL in kickoff return average allowed and was fourth in the league in punt return average allowed. The following season, Pittsburgh ranked eighth in the NFL in kickoff return average.

Ligashesky has also had marked success with his kickers at every stop he has made in the professional ranks. Last season, Oakland's Sebastian Janikowski ranked fifth in the NFL by converting 88.6 percent of his field goal attempts for a total of 31, the sixth-highest total in the league. During the three-year tenure Ligashesky was in Pittsburgh, Steelers kicker Jeff Reed was successful on 88.5 percent (77-87) of his field goal attempts, which led the NFL over that span. In Reed's six other NFL seasons, he converted 79.1 percent (136-172) of his attempts.

In St. Louis, Ligashesky tutored Jeff Wilkins, who made 59 field goals in two seasons for the second-highest total in the NFL during that span, with an 86.8 success rate that was the fourth-best mark in the league. That percentage is more than six points higher than Wilkins' career average for his other 12 NFL seasons.

In 2004, Ligashesky helped rookie kicker Josh Scobee make 24 field goals, which ranked eighth in the NFL that season. Scobee also finished seventh in the league with 11 touchbacks. That year, the Jaguars ranked 10th in punt return average and punt average, and eighth in punts inside the 20-yard line.

Ligashesky, a Pittsburgh native, graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was a defensive back. He served as a graduate assistant at Arizona State and Wake Forest and coached at Kent State, Bowling Green and Pittsburgh before entering the NFL.

JIMMY RAYE

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

3RD WITH BUCCANEERS

Jimmy Raye joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as senior offensive assistant in 2012, marking the beginning of his second stint with the team, having served as offensive coordinator from 1985-86.

Raye's coaching career has spanned five decades and includes stops as offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams (1983-84, 91), New England Patriots (1990), Kansas City Chiefs (1998-2000), Washington Redskins (2001), Oakland Raiders (2004-05) and San Francisco 49ers (2009-10). He was also a senior offensive assistant with the New York Jets from 2002-03.

Raye has been instrumental in tutoring some of the NFL's biggest names throughout the years. While with the Rams, Raye orchestrated a rushing attack that resulted in RB Eric Dickerson's NFL-record 2,105 rushing yards in 1984. In 2009, 49ers RB Frank Gore had one of his best seasons, rushing for 1,120 yards and 10 touchdowns on 229 carries (4.9 avg.) while adding three touchdowns and 406 yards on 52 receptions in just 14 games played. From 2006-08, Raye served as RB Thomas Jones' position coach with the Jets. Under Raye's guidance, Jones produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (2007-08) and, in his ninth season, earned his first Pro Bowl berth after rushing for 1,312 yards and 15 touchdowns. In 2001, Raye also helped the Redskins to the league's eighth-place finish in rushing (121.8 ypg), led by RB Stephen Davis' 1,432 yards.

As part of a successful stretch in Kansas City, where he worked his way from Offensive Assistant/Tight Ends Coach (1992) to Running Backs Coach (1993-97) to Offensive Coordinator (1998-2000), Raye helped revitalize the career of Hall of Fame inductee RB Marcus Allen. In 1993, Allen joined Kansas City for his 12th season at the age of 33, and, in five years with the Chiefs, rushed for 3,698 yards and a then-club-record 44 touchdowns. FB Kimble Anders also earned all of his three career Pro Bowl selections (1995-97) under Raye during that time. In addition, the Chiefs led the league in rushing in 1995, averaging 138.9 yards per game, as the team went 13-3 and won the AFC West.

With Raye as offensive coordinator in 2000, the Chiefs ranked eighth in the NFL in total offense (350.9 ypg) and fourth in passing (259.3 ypg). A year prior, Kansas City finished fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg), tied for eighth in points scored (24.4) and 12th in total offense (332.6 ypg).

Raye has also coached in the NFL for the Lions (1978-79) and Falcons (1980-82, 87-89), and in the collegiate ranks at Michigan State (1971-75), his alma mater, and Wyoming (1976).

Raye played one professional season with the Philadelphia Eagles as a defensive back, after having been drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1968 NFL Draft. As a quarterback at Michigan State, Raye led the Spartans to two Big Ten titles and led the team in the 1966 matchup vs. Notre Dame that is often referred to as "The Game of the Century."

Born and raised in Fayetteville, North Carolina, Raye is married to wife, Edwenna, and the couple has two children. Daughter Robin Michelle Alston is married to Derrick Alston and lives in Sugarland, Texas with Raye's two grandchildren, Derrick (14) and Avery (6). Son Jimmy Raye III is Director of Player Personnel for the San Diego Chargers.

BRIAN ANGELICHIO

TIGHT ENDS COACH

Brian Angelichio enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will instruct tight ends. He joins Tampa Bay for his 18th year coaching, most recently having worked at Rutgers University, where he served in the same capacity during the 2011 season under new Buccaneers head coach, Greg Schiano.

Prior to his time with the Scarlet Knights, Angelichio coached five seasons with the University of Pittsburgh, where he worked with tight ends and also served as the offensive coordinator in the 2009 BBVA Compass Bowl.

Under Angelichio, Pitt's starting tight ends – and 2010 NFL Draft picks – Nate Byham (San Francisco, 182nd overall) and Dorin Dickerson (Houston, 227th overall) were both named All-Big East in 2009. Byham, as a two-time All-Big East selectee, was the first Panthers tight end to twice earn that honor. Dickerson set a Pitt tight end record with 10 touchdown receptions in 2009 and was named to the Football Writers Association All-America Team in addition to being a finalist for the John Mackey Award for the nation's top tight end.

Angelichio also mentored Pittsburgh's Darrell Strong, who, in 2008, became the first Pitt tight end invited to attend the Hula Bowl all-star game since 1981.

Angelichio started his coaching career at SUNY-Brockport in 1995, coaching the school's secondary, and then spent 10 seasons at Ithaca College, coaching linebackers (1996-97), receivers (1998) and offensive line (1999-2000) before serving as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach (2000-05). With the Bombers, Angelichio coached seven All-Americans and advanced to the postseason in seven of his 10 seasons in addition to guiding a highly productive unit as offensive coordinator that set or tied 30 team and individual records.

A 1995 graduate of St. Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Angelichio was a member of the Saints' football and baseball teams. He was a three-year starter at outside linebacker as well as serving as a captain and four-year starter on the baseball team. He earned his master's degree from Ithaca in 1997.

Angelichio was born December 27, 1972 in Ilion, New York.

BOB BOSTAD

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Bob Bostad enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2012, where he will coach the offensive line.

Bostad comes to the Buccaneers after a highly successful six-year campaign at Wisconsin working as run game coordinator (2006-11) while also coaching the tight ends (2006-07) and offensive line (2008-11). He was instrumental in some of college football's most explosive offenses, and, in particular, dominant rushing attacks. Under Bostad's guidance, the Badgers' offensive line became one of the most decorated position groups in the country. He tutored four first-team All-Americans on Wisconsin's offensive front in the past two seasons, including C Pete Konz and G Kevin Zeitler in 2011 and T Gabe Carimi and G John Moffitt in 2010, and had nine players earn All-Big Ten recognition from 2008-11 as offensive line coach.

Four of Bostad's offensive linemen have been selected in the past three NFL drafts, including three in the 2010 NFL Draft: Carimi, Moffitt and C Bill Nagy. Carimi was selected by the Chicago Bears in the first round after earning consensus All-American honors, the Big Ten Lineman of the Year award and the Outland Trophy as college football's top interior lineman.

As the Badgers' run game coordinator since his start with the team in 2006, Bostad annually helped orchestrate one of the most powerful rushing attacks in the Big Ten and nationally, finishing with more than 3,000 yards each of the past two seasons — one of only eight teams nationally to accomplish that feat — en route to a pair of Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl berths.

In 2011, Heisman trophy finalist RB Monte Ball rushed for 1,923 yards and set an NCAA record with 39 touchdowns. Ball earned first-team All-American honors, as well as the Graham-George Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year award. In 2010, the Badgers nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three different players rush for at least 1,000 yards in the same season: James White (1,052), John Clay (1,012) and Monte Ball (996).

As tight ends coach during his first two seasons at Wisconsin, Bostad coached Travis Beckum. In 2007, Beckum recorded 75 receptions for 982 yards — both school records for a tight end — and was named first-team All-American and a John Mackey Award finalist.

Prior to Wisconsin, Bostad coached the offensive line at New Mexico (1999-2005), where he produced 14 All-Mountain West Conference performers, including seven first-team honorees. His 2005 offensive line opened holes for MWC Offensive Player of the Year DonTrell Moore, the nation's 10th-leading rusher (118.0 yards/game). Moore recorded his fourth season rushing for 1,000 yards in 2005, making him, at the time, just the sixth player in NCAA history to record such a feat.

Several of Bostad's linemen from New Mexico made their way into the professional ranks, as C Ryan Cook, a second-round selection of the Minnesota Vikings, and T Terrance Pennington, a seventh-round pick of the Buffalo Bills, were both rookie starters in the NFL in 2006. Additionally, the 2006 draft saw G Robert Turner sign with the New York Jets as an undrafted free agent, and, in 2005, G Claude Terrell was drafted by the St. Louis Rams in the fourth round.

Bostad spent two seasons at San Jose State (1997-98) as offensive line coach and was elevated to an offensive coordinator post his final year. Under his watch, T David Lovern was an All-Western Athletic Conference selection and went on to be drafted in the third round by the New York Jets and spend seven seasons in the NFL.

Bostad coached the offensive line at Cal State Northridge in 1995-96 and spent three seasons as an offensive line graduate assistant at Minnesota (1992-94) under head coach Jim Wacker.

Bostad began his career at his alma mater, UW-Stevens Point, coaching the offensive line from 1990-91. Bostad graduated from UW-Stevens Point in 1989, where he was a four-year starter as a linebacker.

Born September 7, 1966 in Pardeeville, Wisconsin, Bostad and his wife Cara have four children: Rachel, Bryn, Annika and John.

JAY BUTLER*HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH*1ST NFL SEASON*1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Jay Butler joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for his first season in the NFL and first with the team in 2012, serving as Head Strength and Conditioning Coach following nearly two decades of experience running collegiate strength and conditioning programs.

Butler follows Buccaneers Head Coach Greg Schiano from Rutgers, where the former spent 11 seasons, first as Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coordinator (2001-03) and then as Assistant Athletic Director for Strength and Conditioning/Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach (2004-11).

While at Rutgers, Butler spearheaded the efforts to increase the on-field performance of Scarlet Knights football. His vast knowledge in the areas of strength and conditioning helped Rutgers make remarkable strides in the weight room and on the field, and his tireless work ethic and demanding approach were realized as he played a role in Rutgers' development from a virtual unknown to a consistently competitive and nationally respected program.

Butler's philosophy has also paid off for the athletes under his guidance, as Scarlet Knights – many of whom continued to train with Butler in the offseason – found success in the NFL in record numbers during the years Butler headed up the strength and conditioning program.

Prior to joining the Scarlet Knights' staff, Butler served as the Director of Speed, Strength and Conditioning at Dartmouth College for five years (1996-2000). Before his stint at Dartmouth, Butler worked four years at East Carolina University in the strength and conditioning program. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for three years at ECU, while earning his master's degree. He was soon promoted to Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning in 1995.

Butler, who graduated from Bucknell University in 1991 with a degree in mechanical engineering, also served as a three-year starter and two-time All-American offensive tackle for the Bison before playing two seasons professionally with the New York Giants and the Montreal Machine (World League).

Born September 10, 1969 in Hillsborough, New Jersey, Butler is married to wife Jo Ann and has four daughters: Kylie, Casey, Sydney, and Katherine.

EARNEST BYNER*RUNNING BACKS COACH*15TH NFL SEASON*1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Earnest Byner enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will serve as running backs coach.

Byner brings nearly three decades of experience to the Buccaneers as an NFL player, coach and member of the front office. In eight years coaching running backs for several different clubs, Byner has had a back finish among the league's top 10 rushers in seven of those seasons, including two players who won a season's rushing title: Tennessee Titans RB Chris Johnson in 2009 and Jacksonville Jaguars RB Maurice Jones-Drew in 2011. In fact, Byner has led a back to 1,000 yards rushing in each of his eight seasons as coach.

Byner spent the past two seasons with the Jaguars (2010-11), where, under his tutelage, Jones-Drew led the NFL and set the single-season franchise record for the Jaguars with 1,606 yards rushing (2011). Jones-Drew, who was voted to the Pro Bowl and was named to the Associated Press first-team, also became the first player in team history to lead the NFL in rushing yards. In 2010, the Jaguars ranked third in the NFL in rushing, averaging 149.7 yards per game, and their 4.7 yards per carry ranked fifth in the league. Jones-Drew rushed for 1,324 yards in only 14 games, including a stretch of six consecutive 100-yard outings.

Before joining the Jaguars, Byner served as running backs coach for the Tennessee Titans from 2008-09, overseeing Johnson's development. In 2009, Johnson became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 2,000 yards (2,006) and broke the yards from scrimmage record (2,509) previously held by Marshall Faulk. Johnson, the NFL Offensive Player of the Year that season, rushed for 100 yards in 11 consecutive games, tying Marcus Allen for the second-longest streak in NFL history (Barry Sanders, 14 in 1997). During the 2008 season, Byner helped LenDale White rank third in the NFL with 15 rushing touchdowns while Johnson rushed for 1,228 yards and earned Pro Bowl and All-Rookie honors.

Byner began his coaching career with the Washington Redskins as running backs coach (2004-07), helping RB Clinton Portis to 4,616 yards and 34 touchdowns in those four seasons. He also aided Ladell Betts, who finished with 1,154 yards rushing after Portis was placed on Injured Reserve halfway through the 2006 season.

Following his retirement from a 14-year NFL playing career, Byner joined the Baltimore Ravens as the director of player development from 1998-03, while also assisting the personnel and coaching departments.

Originally a 10th-round draft pick by the Cleveland Browns in 1984, Byner played seven seasons for the Browns (1984-88, 1994-95), five seasons with the Redskins (1989-93) and two seasons with the Ravens (1996-97). In that time, he registered 8,261 rushing yards, 56 touchdowns and was named to two Pro Bowls (1990-91). When he retired, he ranked 16th in NFL history in career rushing yards.

Byner earned a number of honors throughout his career, including being named one of the 70 all-time greatest Redskins in 2002, an induction into the Ravens Ring of Honor, the Ed Block Courage Award in 1986, the 1996 NFL Extra Effort award, the NFLPA Unsung Hero award in 1997 and the Ravens Man of the Year award in 1997.

He was a collegiate standout at East Carolina (1980-83), where he is a member of the school's Sports Hall of Fame.

RON COOPER

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Ron Cooper enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will serve as defensive backs coach.

Cooper begins his tenure with Tampa Bay after spending 29 seasons in the college ranks, including two different stints as a defensive coordinator and three as a head coach. He has been with LSU for the past three seasons (2009-11), overseeing one of the top secondaries in the country that included national award winners in CB Morris Claiborne, CB Patrick Peterson and CB Tyrann Mathieu. Cooper coached the last two winners of the Jim Thorpe Award – Peterson in 2010 and Claiborne in 2011 – given to the top defensive back in college football, as well as the last two winners of the Chuck Bednarik Award – Peterson in 2010 and Mathieu in 2011 – given to the nation's Defensive Player of the Year. As a sophomore in 2011, Mathieu was also named as a finalist for the Heisman Trophy.

All three players earned consensus All-American honors under Cooper, with Claiborne and Mathieu becoming the first cornerback teammates to earn first-team AP honors in NCAA history. In 2011, Claiborne (Coaches) and Mathieu (AP) each earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors, while Peterson (Coaches) earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year in 2010 before being selected fifth overall in the 2010 NFL Draft.

As a unit, LSU's secondary accounted for 16 interceptions, nine fumble recoveries and 12 forced fumbles in 2011, as the Tigers led the nation in turnover margin and ranked fifth in total interceptions with 18. The team allowed just seven passing touchdowns all season, the fewest by a Tiger team since limiting opponents to five in 1989.

In his first two seasons with LSU, Cooper made an immediate impact with the Tigers, helping the team to the Capital One Bowl and the Cotton Bowl. In his first year, LSU's pass defense jumped to 29th after ranking 73rd in the nation the previous year. The improvement continued, with the team ranking No. 10 in the country in 2010 and No. 8 in 2011, where the team finished 13-1 and earned an SEC Championship and a trip to the BCS National Championship Game.

Cooper spent five years at South Carolina prior to being hired by LSU, serving as the defensive backs coach (2004), outside linebackers/special teams coordinator (2005), secondary/assistant head coach (2006-07) and safeties coach (2008). In 2008, Cooper assisted with a defense that ranked No. 1 in the SEC and No. 2 in the nation in pass defense, allowing just 160 yards per game. With the Gamecocks, Cooper helped the team to appearances in the 2005 Independence Bowl, 2006 Liberty Bowl and 2009 Outback Bowl.

Prior to his stay in South Carolina, Cooper spent 2003 as the defensive coordinator at Mississippi State and 2002 as the secondary coach at Wisconsin. Cooper broke into the head coaching ranks with Eastern Michigan (1993-94) and went on to become head coach at Louisville (1995-97) and Alabama A&M (1998-01). Cooper's 1995 Louisville team led the nation in takeaways and finished No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense. The following season, the Cardinals ranked No. 4 in the country in both total defense and rushing defense. At Alabama A&M, Cooper guided the Bulldogs to the Southwestern Athletic Conference Championship Game in 2000. His squad led the nation in rushing defense and they ranked No. 8 nationally in scoring defense. He also discovered DE Robert Mathis and coached him in his first three collegiate seasons with Mathis still holding the school record for career sacks and tackles for loss.

Before becoming head coach at Eastern Michigan, Cooper served as an assistant coach at Notre Dame (1991-92), helping the Irish to victories over No. 3-ranked Florida in the Sugar Bowl and No. 4 Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl following the 1991 and 1992 seasons.

Cooper also served as the defensive coordinator at UNLV (1990), assistant coach at East Carolina (1989), defensive coordinator at Murray State (1987-88), assistant coach at Austin Peay (1985-86), graduate assistant at Minnesota (1984) and graduate assistant at Appalachian State (1983).

On the field, Cooper was a four-year letter winner at Jacksonville State, where he was a part of two Gulf South Conference championships in 1981 and 1982. Cooper also played in the NCAA Division II playoffs three times during his career, reaching the semifinal round in 1982.

Cooper and his wife, Djuna, have a daughter, Tyler, and two sons, Tristan and Ronald, Jr.

BRYAN COX

DEFENSIVE FRONT SEVEN COACH

Bryan Cox enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will serve as Defensive Front Seven Coach.

Cox joins the Buccaneers after six years in the NFL coaching ranks with the New York Jets, Cleveland Browns and Miami Dolphins. Most recently, in 2011, Cox worked with new Buccaneers Defensive Coordinator Bill Sheridan in Miami as the pass rush coach, helping the team to a Top 10 finish in sacks, with 41 accounted for by 13 different players. The team finished with four different players having recorded four or more sacks, including Jared Odrick (6.0), Randy Starks (4.5), Jason Taylor (7.0) and Cameron Wake (8.5).

Cox joined the Dolphins after spending the 2009-10 seasons with the Cleveland Browns as defensive line coach. In his first year with the Browns, he helped DE Robaire Smith come back from an Achilles injury to start in 15 games and finish fifth on the team with 62 tackles and 1.5 sacks. He also oversaw the development of NT Ahtyba Rubin and DE Brian Schaefering, both of whom made their first NFL starts in 2009. Rubin, a second-year performer, recorded 38 tackles and started the final five games as the Browns held their opponents to less than 100 yards rushing in three of them. Schaefering played in the final five games of the season after spending the first 12 weeks on the practice squad, responding with 12 tackles and 1.5 sacks in his limited action. In all, Cox's defensive lineman accounted for 11.5 sacks in 2009.

Cox started his coaching career with the New York Jets, spending three seasons as assistant defensive line coach (2006-08). In 2008, he helped the Jets defense rank seventh in the NFL in both sacks (41.0) and rushing defense (94.9 ypg), during which time DT Shaun Ellis led the team with 8.0 sacks and finished fifth on the team in tackles.

Cox had a stellar 12-year career as a linebacker in the NFL after being chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1991 NFL Draft (113th overall). He played the first five years of his career in Miami before spending time with Chicago (1996-97), where Buccaneers Head Coach Greg Schiano was serving as a defensive assistant. Cox then went on to play for the N.Y. Jets (1998-2000), New England (2001) and finished his career with New Orleans (2002). During his career, he appeared in 165 regular season games, including 145 starts. He posted 51.5 career sacks, including a high of 14 in 1992, a figure which led the Dolphins that year and earned him the first of three Pro Bowl selections.

A graduate of Western Illinois, Cox played collegiately for the Leathernecks from 1987-90 while earning his degree in mass communications.

He is a native of East St. Louis, Illinois, and is married to Kim. The couple has four daughters – Lavonda, Brittani, Kelli, and Chiquita – and one son – Bryan, Jr.

P.J. FLECK

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

P.J. Fleck enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2012. He will be responsible for coaching Tampa Bay's wide receiving corps and joins the Buccaneers following two seasons coaching in the same capacity at Rutgers University.

The Scarlet Knights receivers made great strides with Fleck's guidance, most notably Mohamed Sanu and Mark Harrison, both of whom emerged as important weapons for the Rutgers offense. Sanu finished the 2011 season setting both a school and Big East Conference record with 115 receptions for 1,206 yards and seven touchdowns, earning All-Big East honors and becoming one of the top-rated prospects in the 2012 NFL Draft. In 2010, Fleck helped Harrison to a team-leading 829 yards and nine touchdowns on 44 receptions.

Fleck began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ohio State before spending three seasons (2007-09) as wide receivers coach at his alma mater, Northern Illinois. During his time coaching the Huskies, two of his receivers, Britt Davis and Matt Simon, signed free agent contracts to play professionally.

As a wide receiver with Northern Illinois from 1999-2003, Fleck was part of the Huskies' 2003 10-win season, during which time he recorded 1,028 yards and six touchdowns on 77 catches, a reception total that still ranks second in Northern Illinois history. He also still owns the school record for career punt returns (87), is second in punt return yards (716), third in career catches (179) and fourth in receiving yards (2,162).

Fleck played for two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (2004-05). After signing with the 49ers as a free agent in 2004, he spent most of that season on the practice squad before making an appearance versus New England late in the year. He was placed on the injured reserve roster in 2005. In 2006, he left the 49ers to begin his coaching career.

A native of Sugar Grove, Illinois, Fleck is a 2004 graduate of Northern Illinois in elementary education, and is married to the former Tracie Striebel. The couple has one son, Carter Joseph (C.J.).

BOB FRASER

LINEBACKERS COACH

Bob Fraser joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for his first season with the team in 2012, where he will work with linebackers.

Fraser comes to Tampa Bay with more than two decades of coaching experience on the collegiate level, having most recently worked for six seasons (2006-11) under Head Coach Greg Schiano at Rutgers University in varying capacities.

After spending his first season with the Scarlet Knights in 2006 as assistant to the head coach, Fraser then worked the 2007-08 seasons with the linebacking corps before taking on defensive coordinator duties, along with coaching linebackers, for 2009-10. In 2011, he continued his role as defensive coordinator, but moved to mentoring the Rutgers defensive line.

During his time at RU, Fraser was instrumental in helping orchestrate some of Rutgers' finest defensive units. In 2011, his defense finished first in the Big East Conference in four defensive categories: total defense, scoring defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense. It was also ranked in the top 20 nationally in total defense (14th), scoring defense (8th), pass defense (9th), pass efficiency defense (5th), sacks (15th), and tackles for loss (8th). In addition, Rutgers LB Khaseem Greene was named both an All-American and the first Big East Co-Defensive Player of the Year in school history.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2009, Fraser helped the Scarlet Knights to top 20 national rankings in six categories, including leading the nation in tackles for loss and ranking fourth in sacks. RU was 15th in the country in rushing defense, 16th in scoring defense and 18th in total defense.

Before joining the RU staff, Fraser served nine seasons coaching linebackers at Colgate University. During his tenure, he tutored three Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year honorees, nine All-Patriot League selections and two All-Americans.

Fraser started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Allegheny College, during the 1985-86 seasons. He later served in the same role at Rutgers for the 1987-88 seasons, where he worked with Head Coach Greg Schiano who was then a graduate assistant as well.

Fraser returned to Allegheny for the 1989 season in his first full-time position, spending three seasons as linebackers coach. The Gators were undefeated for two seasons, and, in 1990, won the NCAA Division III National Championship.

From 1992-95, Fraser coached the defensive line at Holy Cross, and then spent the 1996 season working with offensive tackles and tight ends at Northeastern.

As a player, he was a four-year letter winner at Allegheny, earning All-America honors on the defensive line as a sophomore and serving as team captain during both his junior and senior seasons. He was inducted into both the Allegheny College and East Allegheny High School Hall of Fames.

Fraser, who graduated from Allegheny in 1985 with a degree in computer science, lives with his wife Cheryl and the couple's three children: Justin, Jason and Jessica.

PHIL GALIANO

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Phil Galiano joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for his first season as assistant special teams coach in 2012.

Galiano spent the past two seasons at Rutgers – his second stint with the Scarlet Knights – where he coached tight ends in 2010 and, most recently, the defensive line in 2011. He previously coached the defensive ends and linebackers in his first term with the team from 2003-06.

Prior to his return to Rutgers, Galiano served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International. While at FIU, Galiano helped the Panthers achieve marked improvements on the defensive side of the ball. Between the 2007 and 2008 seasons, FIU jumped up 74 spots in turnover margin, 45 spots in pass efficiency defense, 36 spots in scoring defense, 34 spots in total defense and 25 spots in rush defense. The team also ranked 25th nationally in tackles for loss average, moving up 37 spots.

In his first stay with the Scarlet Knights, Galiano began with a position as defensive assistant in 2003 before he was elevated to linebackers coach in 2004. He later spent the 2005-06 seasons coaching the defensive ends.

In 2006, Galiano's defensive ends were major contributors on a defensive unit that ranked fourth nationally. Rutgers' defense was fifth in the NCAA in both sacks and tackles for loss per game and produced first-team All-America and All-Big East defensive lineman Eric Foster, as well as second-team All-Big East defensive linemen Jamaal Westerman, both current members of the National Football League. That season, Rutgers earned just its second bowl berth in school history – and first-ever bowl victory – with a 37-10 win over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl.

Galiano began his coaching career at Dickinson College, where he worked with the outside linebackers during the 2000 season. He spent 2001 as outside linebackers coach at the University of New Haven before becoming an offensive assistant at Villanova in 2002, working primarily with the tight ends.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg University, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to three consecutive winning seasons from 1997-99, posting a 21-11 mark over that span.

Galiano, who originally hails from Norristown, Pennsylvania, graduated from Shippensburg in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He and his wife, Kelly, have a son, Thomas Jeffrey, and daughter, Taylor Lee.

JEFF HAFLEY*ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH*1ST NFL SEASON*1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Jeff Hafley, who joins the Buccaneers as assistant defensive backs coach, enters his first season in the NFL and first with Tampa Bay in 2012.

Hafley most recently spent the 2011 season as secondary coach at Rutgers University under Head Coach Greg Schiano, where he led the ninth-ranked passing defense in the country and coached DB Duron Harmon to first-team All-Big East honors and CB Logan Ryan to second-team recognition.

Before joining Rutgers' staff, Hafley worked five seasons at the University of Pittsburgh as the secondary coach (2008-10) and defensive assistant/cornerbacks (2006-07). While with the Panthers, he coached four players who were named to All-Big East teams, including CB Aaron Berry and S Dom DeCicco in 2009, both of whom went on to play professionally, with Berry starting at cornerback with the Detroit Lions and DeCicco playing linebacker with the Chicago Bears. In 2006, Hafley helped mentor NFL Pro Bowl CB Darrelle Revis, who went on to be a Jim Thorpe finalist, All-American and 14th-overall draft selection for the N.Y. Jets.

Hafley served at the University of Albany as the defensive backs coach/recruiting coordinator (2004-05) and as defensive tackles coach (2002-03) prior to his time at Pittsburgh, after having spent one season at Worcester Polytechnic as the running backs coach during the 2001 season.

During his time at Albany, Hafley coached S Kurt Campbell, who became the first player in the school's history to be selected in the NFL Draft.

Hafley graduated cum laude from Siena College with a bachelor's degree in history in 2001. He played wide receiver at Siena from 1997-2000, and began his coaching career at his alma mater while recovering from three separate surgeries that kept him off the field. He later earned his master's from Albany in 2003.

Hafley, a native of Montvale, New Jersey, is married to wife, Gina.

STEVE LONEY

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Steve Loney enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will assist in the instruction of the offensive line.

Loney has a vast array of coaching experience, both on the professional and collegiate levels, and comes to the Buccaneers following four seasons with the St. Louis Rams, where he coached the offensive line (2008-11). His line helped pave the way for RB Steven Jackson, who recorded at least 1,000 yards rushing each season Loney was on staff.

In 2010, Loney helped T Rodger Saffold to All-Rookie honors, as the latter became the only rookie in the NFL that season to start all 16 games at left tackle. The team also gave up 10 fewer sacks than it had in 2009, despite attempting 47 more passes, which marked the second straight season the team had improved on the previous year's mark.

During the 2008 season, Loney's blockers helped Jackson produce his second-best career performance and earn a Pro Bowl berth following an NFC-leading 1,416 yards rushing. The offensive line paved the way for the Rams to average 118.4 rushing yards from scrimmage per game, the best in the NFL.

Loney joined the Rams after one season as interim head coach at Drake University (2007), one season as offensive line coach with the Arizona Cardinals (2006), and four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he coached the offensive line (2002-05) and added offensive coordinator duties in 2005.

While with the Vikings, the team led the NFL in rushing in 2002, led the NFL in total offense in 2003, and set a franchise record for yardage in 2004 as QB Daunte Culpepper broke nearly every Vikings passing record and posted the fourth-best passer rating in NFL history.

Loney has coached at Iowa State, his alma mater, on three separate occasions: first as a graduate assistant in 1974 when he first began coaching, and then as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach from 1995-97 and 2000-01. Loney's offense spearheaded back-to-back bowl seasons in 2000 and 2001. In 2000, the Cyclones averaged 424.4 yards per game, the third-best total in school history. During the 1995 and 1996 seasons, Heisman Trophy finalist Troy Davis became the only tailback in national collegiate history to rush for two consecutive 2,000-yard seasons.

Between his latter stints with the Cyclones, Loney worked as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota (1998-99). The Golden Gophers were second in the Big Ten Conference and 11th in the nation in rushing offense in 1999.

Loney was assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Connecticut in 1994 and made his NFL coaching debut as an assistant offensive line coach for the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993. Loney also spent time with Missouri Western (1975-76), Morehead State University (1979-83), The Citadel (1984-86) and Colorado State (1989-92) on the collegiate level, and coached two seasons at Leavenworth (KS) High School (1977-78).

A letter winner on the offensive line for Iowa State in 1973, Loney earned his bachelor's degree in distributed studies and his master's degree in secondary school administration at the university.

Loney and his wife, Terri, a former collegiate golf coach at Colorado State, have three children: Matt, Katie, and Kylan. The couple also has six grandchildren.

TEM LUKABU

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Tem Lukabu enters his first season in the NFL and first with the Buccaneers in 2012, serving the club as defensive assistant.

Lukabu joins Tampa Bay following two seasons (2010-11) at Rutgers University, where he coached outside linebackers. In 2011, Lukabu was instrumental in LB Khaseem Greene's standout season, in which the latter led the team with 144 tackles, earning conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors, the first in Rutgers history. He was hired as defensive coordinator at Fordham University in January 2012, but ultimately left to join Tampa Bay's staff.

Before working with the Scarlet Knights, Lukabu spent two seasons (2008-09) as linebackers coach at the University of Rhode Island, mentoring a pair of notable players in Matt Hansen, a second-team All-Colonial Athletic Association and All-New England Sports Writer honoree, and Rob Damon, a third-team Football Championship Subdivision All-American and third-team All-CAA recipient.

Lukabu began his coaching career working in player development at Rutgers from 2006-08, where he was responsible for the academic growth and development of football players, monitoring the academic performance of specific players with special needs and assisting in the execution of plans and academic goals set for the team.

A former linebacker himself, Lukabu was a three-year starter at Colgate University and, in 2003, captained the national runner-up squad that finished 15-1 and ranked second in the nation. That same season, he was named a third team AP All-American and was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the national defensive player of the year.

Lukabu earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in history with a minor in political science from Colgate in 2004. He is a native of Avenel, New Jersey, and is married to wife, Kate. They recently welcomed their first child, a daughter, Zaida.

KEVIN MacCONNELL

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Kevin MacConnell enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will serve as Director of Football Operations.

MacConnell is responsible for assisting Head Coach Greg Schiano in organizing football operations for the club. He manages many elements of Schiano's off-field agenda, including the day-to-day schedule, player and staff communications, and the football calendar, including offseason programs, minicamps and training camp.

Prior to his arrival at Tampa Bay, MacConnell worked 26 years for the Rutgers athletic department in a variety of administrative roles. He joined the Scarlet Knights in 1986 when he was named the director of sports media relations, and then worked in marketing and external affairs before joining closely with the university's athletics director to oversee areas such as facilities, event and operations, student services and compliance, administration and finance, communications, and development and marketing.

MacConnell worked for the Atlantic 10 Conference, the USFL's New Jersey Generals and the New Jersey Nets prior to his employment at Rutgers.

A Plainfield, New Jersey native, MacConnell graduated from Rutgers in 1980.

BEN McDANIELS*OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT*3RD NFL SEASON*1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Ben McDaniels enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2012, working as an offensive assistant.

McDaniels served previously on the coaching staff of the Denver Broncos, working as coaching assistant in 2009 and quarterbacks coach in 2010, before being hired as Columbia University's offensive coordinator in December 2011.

While with the Broncos in 2010, McDaniels helped direct the seventh-ranked pass offense in the National Football League as quarterbacks Kyle Orton and Tim Tebow combined for 4,307 passing yards and 25 touchdowns to just 12 interceptions, while Tebow also added 227 yards rushing and six rushing scores.

In 2009, McDaniels was part of a Denver offensive coaching staff that helped Orton to a career year, setting a personal best with 3,802 passing yards, which marked the second-highest total in the NFL among players in their first year with a team. Orton also tied for fifth in the league and matched a club record by posting a passer rating of at least 90.0 in 10 games. In addition, the Broncos offense tied for seventh in the NFL with only 23 giveaways, marking the fourth-lowest total in team history.

Before joining the Broncos, McDaniels spent three years coaching high school football in Ohio. He instructed quarterbacks at Massillon Jackson High School in 2008 after a two-year stint coaching the quarterbacks at Canton McKinley Senior High School from 2006-07. He began his coaching career in 2003 as a wide receivers coach at Warren Harding (Ohio) High School.

McDaniels worked for the University of Minnesota as a graduate assistant under Head Coach Glen Mason from 2004-05. The Golden Gophers posted a 7-5 record and earned a berth in the Music City Bowl during each of those two seasons with McDaniels working with the wide receivers in 2004 and the defensive backs in 2005.

While at Minnesota in 2005, McDaniels was part of its team that recaptured the "Little Brown Jug" on a last-second road victory over the University of Michigan, marking the Golden Gophers' first – and currently only – victory against Michigan since 1986 in one of college football's oldest rivalries.

McDaniels was a quarterback at Kent State University under Head Coach Dean Pees from 1999-2001 after playing for Canton McKinley, which he led to a 37-3 record and two state championships during his three years as a starter. He set Canton McKinley career and single-season records for passing yards and touchdowns while helping it earn a No. 1 national ranking from USA Today in 1997.

McDaniels is recently married, and resides with his wife, Kyle, in St. Petersburg Beach.

RANDY MELVIN

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Randy Melvin enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2012, where he will work with the defensive line.

Melvin brings nearly three decades of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including six seasons coaching defensive lines at the professional level.

Melvin worked as defensive line coach under Bill Belichick with the New England Patriots from 2000-01 and later worked as defensive line coach under Romeo Crennel with the Cleveland Browns from 2005-08. While with New England, Melvin was part of a Patriots team that won Super Bowl XXVI, the first world championship in the franchise's history. In that game, the Patriots defense held the St. Louis Rams – then the league's top scoring offense – to a mere 17 points.

Most recently, Melvin spent the 2011 season coaching a dominant defensive line coach with the BC Lions of the CFL, where his unit accounted for 38 of the club's 54 sacks during a season which saw the Lions win the CFL's Grey Cup Championship. Three players under Melvin's guidance were named West Division All Stars.

Melvin also has extensive experience at the collegiate level, having worked as defensive line coach at Rutgers (2002-04, 2010) and Temple (2009), defensive ends coach at Purdue (1997-99), defensive tackles coach at Wyoming (1995-96) and defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois (1988-94).

At Temple, Melvin helped DE Adrian Robinson to a 12-sack season, as he was named the Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year. The Owls' defensive unit was ranked 18th in the nation in rushing defense and tied for 23rd in sacks.

In 2002, his first season with Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights allowed 23.5 fewer rushing yards per game than they had the previous year. That progression continued into the next season, as the Melvin-led defensive front allowed nearly 44 fewer yards per game in 2003 than it had in 2002.

A native of Aurora, Illinois, and graduate of Eastern Illinois, Melvin was a starter on the defensive line for the Panthers for three seasons and received AP All-America recognition (Division II) in 1979 and 1980. He also earned his master's degree from the school in 1993 and was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 1995.

Melvin and his wife, Karen, have two children, Lance and Malia, and one granddaughter, Eliza.

RON TURNER

QUARTERBACKS COACH

Ron Turner enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012, where he will tutor the Buccaneers' quarterbacks.

Turner brings 35 years of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including 11 seasons in the NFL working as the quarterbacks coach (2011) and wide receivers coach (2010) with the Indianapolis Colts and offensive coordinator (2005-09) and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1993-96) with the Chicago Bears.

In 2010, Turner's receivers were incredibly productive. Reggie Wayne (111-1,355-6 TDs) produced his seventh consecutive 1,000-plus yard season, a third 100-plus reception season and a career season-best reception total. With expected starter Anthony Gonzalez out with injury, Turner helped wide receivers Austin Collie (58-649-8 TDs) and Pierre Garcon (67-784-6 TDs) each to 55-plus receptions, 600-plus yards and five-plus touchdown catches, while rookie free agent Blair White (36-355-5 TDs) also had an impact. Collie amassed his totals in just nine outings, while Garcon missed two games and White appeared in 13 games.

In his second stint with the Bears, Turner directed QB Jay Cutler to a record-setting season in 2009, with the most completions (336) and attempts (555) in team history. As a team, Chicago had 3,473 net passing yards, the third-best club seasonal total with the other best totals of 3,362 (2007) and 3,743 (1995) both coming under Turner's tenure. In all, Turner's offenses produced four of the top five and seven of the top 17 passing attacks in club history, topping 3,000 net passing yards in seven of nine seasons under Turner.

The rushing attack produced 8,512 yards in Turner's last five seasons, including the second- and third-best club totals (2,099 in 2005; 1,918 in 2006) in the last 19 seasons. Chicago surpassed 4,600 net yards annually from 2006-09. The Bears also earned three playoff berths during Turner's overall tenure.

In 2008, Turner helped QB Kyle Orton set a team mark with 205 attempts without an interception. RB Matt Forte also had success, rushing 316 times for 1,238 yards and eight touchdowns while adding 63 receptions for 477 yards and four touchdowns setting club rookie marks in yards, scrimmage yards (1,715) and receptions. The team's 375 points tied the seventh-best seasonal mark in club history.

Turner and the 2006 Bears went 13-3, winning the NFC North and earning home-field advantage in the playoffs and a trip to the Super Bowl. Chicago bested Seattle (27-24) and New Orleans (39-14), before falling in Super Bowl XLI to Indianapolis. During the season, the team topped 30-plus points seven times, the best seasonal total since 1956, and produced 5,199 net yards. QB Rex Grossman was 262-of-480 passing for 3,193 and 23 touchdowns, while RB Thomas Jones rushed 296 times for 1,210 and six touchdowns rushing. The club's 38 offensive touchdowns were the most since 44 in 1995 under Turner. The Bears were the only NFL team with six players scoring five-plus touchdowns, with the last time the club achieving that mark being 1948.

In 2005, behind a rookie quarterback, Turner helped lead the team to an 11-5 record. The club rushed for 2,099 yards – the first 2,000+-yard season by Chicago since 1990. Chicago ranked eighth in rushing offense (131.2), topped 100-plus yards 13 times and tied for the league lead with 19 rushes of 20 or more yards. Jones recorded 314 carries for 1,335 and nine touchdowns while rookie QB Kyle Orton was 190-of-368 passing for 1,869 yards and nine touchdowns.

During his first tenure, Turner helped Chicago to a 33-33 overall record while working with a different starting quarterback each season. The club's completion percentages in 1994 (61.4%) and 1995 (60.2%) rank among the highest in team history. Chicago's net passing yard total of 3,743 in 1995 ranks second in team annals. With QB Erik Kramer (315-522-3,838, 29 TDs) in 1995, the Bears set a team record for passing offense (233.9) and scored the fifth-most points (392) in club history. Kramer set club records with 29 touchdown passes and 10 interceptions. The 1995 squad had the third-most net yards (5,673) and second-most first downs (340) in team history. The offense also featured a 1,000+-yard rusher (Rashaan Salaam, 1,074) and two 1,000+-yard receivers (Jeff Graham, 1,301; Curtis Conway, 1,037), the only such season in team history.

In between his time with the Bears, Turner was the head coach at University of Illinois for eight seasons (1997-2004), where he is the fourth-winningest coach in school history. He guided the Illini to two bowl bids. The school won the Big Ten championship in 2001 and earned a BCS Bowl bid to the Nokia Sugar Bowl. Turner was the unanimous 2001 Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year and presided over three of the top six offenses in Illini history in terms of total yards, while four of his eight squads ranked in the school's top 11 for scoring. The 2001 unit had a school-record 390 points. Three of the top six all-time leading rushers at Illinois and three of the school's top 10 all-time leading receivers played under Turner. He helped place more than 20 players on NFL rosters.

Turner began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pacific before earning his first full-time college job coaching running backs and receivers at Arizona (1978-80). He moved on to Northwestern (1981-82), Pittsburgh (1983-84), Southern California (1985-87), Texas A&M (1988) and Stanford (1989-91) before earning his first head coaching job at San Jose State (1992).

Turner was a second-team junior college All-America wide receiver at Diablo Valley Community College and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 2009. He then earned a scholarship at Pacific, where he led the Tigers in receiving in 1975 and 1976 with 40 receptions, 666 yards and three touchdowns.

A native of Martinez, California, Turner is married to wife, Wendy, and the couple has four children: Morgan, Cameron, Callan, and Madison. Sons Morgan and Cameron have followed in their father's footsteps, as Morgan currently serves as an offensive assistant at Stanford, while Cameron coaches with the Minnesota Vikings.

DENNIS HICKEY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Entering his 17th season with the Buccaneers overall and second as the director of player personnel, Dennis Hickey has helped lead the Buccaneers to four division titles and one Super Bowl championship during his 16-year tenure.

Hickey, who spent six seasons as director of college scouting prior to his promotion in 2011, is responsible for coordinating a staff of area scouts and managing the compilation of information on college players which has proven to be invaluable during the Buccaneers draft process. In addition to these duties, he also oversees the Pro Personnel Department, which evaluates all pro leagues, free agents and trade prospects.

In 2012, the Buccaneers added several major pieces to their roster with bold moves during free agency, as they welcomed WR Vincent Jackson, G Carl Nicks and CB Eric Wright. In addition to the touted free agents, Hickey and General Manager Mark Dominik worked side-by-side to construct a highly regarded draft class, that saw the Buccaneers make several shrewd trades to bring two first-round picks – S Mark Barron and RB Doug Martin – to Tampa Bay, in addition to trading back into the second round to select LB Lavonte David.

The 2011 draft brought several new building blocks to Tampa Bay, starting with DE Adrian Clayborn, selected 20th overall. Clayborn started in all 16 games and recorded 54 tackles, a team-leading 7.5 sacks, 26 quarterback pressures, four TFL and three forced fumbles. DE Da'Quan Bowers, considered a steal in the second round, further bolstered the defensive line, and finished the season as a starter. Third-round selection LB Mason Foster provided great production, recording statistics in every major defensive category with a team-leading 126 tackles, four TFL, 2.0 sacks, four quarterback pressures, one interception, two passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Foster also led all NFL rookies in tackles.

In 2010, Hickey was instrumental in bringing in a draft class that proved itself on the field during its rookie season, where seven of the nine picks recorded at least one start, with the draft class recording a total of 49 starts on the season. In fact, WR Mike Williams, a fourth-round selection, started all 16 games his rookie season, leading all rookie receivers in the league in receptions (65, second on the team), yards (964, first on the team), and receiving touchdowns (11, single-season team record). Williams was a finalist for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and finished second in voting for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year.

In addition to the draft class, Hickey has helped find and bring many undrafted gems to Tampa Bay throughout the years, including RB LeGarrette Blount. Blount, an undrafted rookie free agent acquired off waivers from Tennessee in 2010, became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to record a 1,000+-yard season when he finished with 1,007 yards, despite starting only seven games, and was nominated for the NFL's Rookie of the Week award on five occasions. Other notable Buccaneers Hickey has helped in attaining include DL Michael Bennett, WR Preston Parker, T Demar Dotson and C/G Ted Larsen.

With Hickey's assistance, the 2009 draft was highlighted by the addition of first-round selection QB Josh Freeman. Freeman led all rookie quarterbacks in completion percentage (54.5) while setting Buccaneer rookie records in touchdown passes (10) and passing yards (1,855) despite starting in just nine games. The third round of 2009's draft produced DT Roy Miller who proved to be a solid contributor along the defensive line. Miller finished the season tied for third among defensive linemen with 54 tackles while adding two sacks. Perhaps the steal of the draft came in the seventh round with the selection of WR Sammie Stroughter. Stroughter ranked third on the team with 31 receptions for 334 yards and one touchdown while adding a kickoff return for a touchdown.

The 2008 draft produced CB Aqib Talib, who tied for first in the NFL among rookies with four interceptions, OL Jeremy Zuttah, who started at both guard positions, and LB Geno Hayes, who was a big contributor on special teams before moving into a starting role. The Buccaneers also procured talent through the signing of undrafted rookie free agents RB/KR Clifton Smith and CB Elbert Mack. Smith was selected to the 2009 AFC/NFC Pro Bowl as the kick returner and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro kick returner while Mack appeared in 15 games in the secondary and on special teams where he ranked fourth on the team with 12 special teams stops.

In 2007, Hickey helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams, who led all NFL rookies with six sacks, and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson, who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season, including G Davin Joseph, who has since developed into one of the NFL's best guards while earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2008 season.

From 1998-2009, Hickey worked as a college scout for the Buccaneers, during which time he oversaw all scouting efforts in the Midwestern states for the team. Hickey was a member of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship in 2002, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Before assuming his role as a scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey spent the 1996-97 seasons as a pro personnel assistant in Tampa Bay's scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hickey spent two years (1994-95) as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was responsible for recruiting in the state of Texas.

Hickey played collegiately at Coffeyville Community College and was a three-year starter and captain at the University of Tulsa, where he was also named an academic All-American. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have one daughter, Breanna, and one son, Barrett. They live in Tampa.

COORDINATOR OF PRO SCOUTING

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles enters his second season as coordinator of pro scouting, after working four seasons as a pro scout for Tampa Bay.

In his current role, Quarles is responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts and evaluation of all pro leagues, free agents and trade prospects.

During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only two players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Ronde Barber) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Currently, Quarles serves on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (September 2009-present) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. This year, Quarles was named the Trailblazer of Our Children's Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations.

An avid golfer, in the spring of 2009, Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

Quarles is married to Damaris and the couple resides in Tampa with their daughter, Gabriela Nicole, and sons, Shelton Eugene Jr. and Carlos Antonio.

BUTCH DAVIS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Butch Davis enters his first season with the Buccaneers – and 11th season in the NFL overall – in 2012. In his role as special assistant to the head coach, Davis will assist and advise Head Coach Greg Schiano in a wide range of football aspects.

Davis joins Tampa Bay with 30 years of coaching experience at both the collegiate and NFL levels, including 14 as a head coach. During his career, Davis has been a part of teams that have earned a 240-153-2 overall record, two Super Bowl Championships, five playoff appearances, one NCAA National Championship, 14 bowl game appearances, seven bowl game victories and 10 AP Top 25 finishes.

As a collegiate head coach, Davis coached or recruited 32 first-round NFL Draft picks and had more than 100 players who spent time in the NFL ranks, including 80 of whom were drafted. Most recently, Davis was the head coach at the University of North Carolina (2007-10) where he led the team to 28 wins and three bowl game appearances, including a Music City Bowl victory following the 2010 season. Before his arrival, the Tar Heels had won only 19 games in the previous five seasons and had not won a bowl game since 2001. He also led the team to three consecutive bowl games for the first time since a streak of seven consecutive during the 1992-98 seasons.

Prior to his time with the Tar Heels, Davis was the head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2001-04). Taking over a team that had won just five games in the previous two seasons combined, Davis led the Browns to seven wins in his first season and nine wins the next, earning a playoff berth that remains the only playoff appearance by the Browns since the team re-entered the NFL in 1999.

Davis earned his opportunity with Cleveland after a very successful campaign as the head coach of the University of Miami (1995-00). While with the Hurricanes, Davis led the team to a 51-20 record over six seasons. That stretch included three Big East Conference Championships and four bowl victories in as many appearances. His teams also ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including a No. 2 final national ranking in 2000 when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Nokia Sugar Bowl.

Davis' first NFL experience came with the Dallas Cowboys, where he served as defensive line coach (1989-92) and later as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (1993-94). With Davis on staff, the Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls: the first a 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII, where Davis coached the defensive line, and then a 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII, where he served as defensive coordinator.

Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history, as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL programs in the 1990s. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As defensive coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular season games and allowing one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator for Dallas during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994, and aided the team in reaching the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl Champion San Francisco denied the Cowboys' bid for its third consecutive Super Bowl appearance. Davis' defense ranked first in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He also coached three Pro Bowl starters – DE Charles Haley, DT Leon Lett and S Darren Woodson – the most Pro Bowl starters for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis began his collegiate coaching career as tight ends coach (1979) and tight ends and wide receivers coach (1980-83) under Jimmy Johnson at Oklahoma State before following Johnson to Miami as defensive line coach (1984-88).

In that first stint with Miami, the Hurricanes went 52-9 in five years, including a perfect 12-0 record in 1987 that was capped with an Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma for the National Championship. Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, then broke that mark with 50 in 1988, and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for Head Coach Frank Broyles, but his career was cut short due to a knee injury. He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville (AK) High School and went on to coach six years at the high school level.

Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and is married to Tammy. The couple has one son, Drew.

MIKE GREENBERG

COORDINATOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Mike Greenberg enters his third season with the Buccaneers and second as coordinator of football administration after joining the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Mark Dominik on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching, scouting, video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

Greenberg joined the Buccaneers after working with the N.Y. Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and with a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law in 2010. He also was the research editor for the Hofstra Law Review. Greenberg is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey and lives in Tampa.

ROB MCCARTNEY

PRO SCOUT

Rob McCartney enters his second season with the Buccaneers and first as pro scout after working as a pro personnel assistant in 2011.

McCartney assists Coordinator of Pro Scouting Shelton Quarles with advance scouting of the Buccaneers' opponents, as well as organizing player workouts and the evaluation of all pro leagues.

McCartney came to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the Player Personnel Department from 2006-08. He also previously worked as a student assistant football coach for the South Carolina Gamecocks, where he assisted in week-to-week game plan development with the defensive staff.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. He is single and lives in Tampa.

ERIC STOKES

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Eric Stokes enters his first season with the Buccaneers as the director of college scouting. He is responsible for coordinating and compiling the evaluations of all draft-eligible players, while overseeing the entire college scouting staff. Stokes also works closely with GM Mark Dominik and the Buccaneers coaching staff regarding the NFL Draft and college free agency.

Stokes comes to Tampa Bay after 14 seasons of playing and scouting experience in the NFL. Most recently, Stokes worked as the Seahawks' assistant director of college scouting (2010-11), during which time he was instrumental in bringing in the likes of defensive standouts S Earl Thomas (first-round, 2010), S Kam Chancellor (fifth-round, 2010), LB K.J. Wright (fourth-round, 2011) and CB Richard Sherman (fifth-round, 2011).

Prior to that, Stokes spent seven seasons with Seattle as an area scout (2000-01, 2005-09) and three seasons as an assistant in the pro personnel department (2002-04). While serving in the pro personnel department, he was responsible for the weekly advance of upcoming opponents, as well as assisting in the evaluation and writing of player reports on potential talent in free agency, NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Stokes also played two seasons as a safety for the Seahawks after being selected in the fifth round (121st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft. He was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the 1999 expansion draft before an injury cut his career short. Stokes graduated from the University of Nebraska with a degree in sociology. He and his wife, Tisa, have three daughters, Erisa, Payton and Madison.

Brian Hudspeth enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers and first as national scout in 2012 after being elevated from college scout. In his 12th season overall in the NFL, he will be responsible for scouting the entire country with an emphasis on the southern region.

In his previous three seasons with the team, Hudspeth was responsible for scouting a portion of the southern United States, including Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas and selected schools in Arkansas and Tennessee.

Hudspeth spent five seasons (2004-08) with the Houston Texans prior to joining the Buccaneers. He served as a college scout from 2006-08, covering the Southeast and Southwest regions while cross checking the Mid-Atlantic. Prior to his appointment to that position, he served as a pro and college scouting assistant for Houston from 2004-05. Hudspeth joined the Texans after working for the Atlanta Falcons in player personnel from 2001-04. He filled various roles for the Falcons, including player personnel/football systems analyst in 2003-04, scouting assistant in 2002 and scouting intern in 2001.

Before joining the NFL, Hudspeth served on the football operations staff at the University of Tennessee from 1998-2001. He was a graduate assistant on the 1998 Volunteers staff that won the first-ever BCS National Championship, 1998 SEC Championship vs. Mississippi State and 1999 Fiesta Bowl over Florida State with a perfect 13-0 record. As a member of the Volunteers, Hudspeth was also a part of the 2000 Fiesta Bowl vs. Nebraska and 2001 Cotton Bowl vs. Kansas State. Hudspeth arrived at Tennessee after spending the 1996-97 seasons as a intern assistant coach at Petal (Mississippi) High School.

Hudspeth earned his Masters of Science degree from the University of Tennessee in 1999 and Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1997. The New Albany, Mississippi native is single and resides in Tampa.

ANDRE FORDE

COLLEGE SCOUT

Andre Forde enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers as a college scout. Forde assists in evaluating personnel and college highlight tapes, advance scouting and data maintenance.

Prior to beginning with the Buccaneers, Forde served as varsity wide receivers coach for Coral Glades High School, and, before that, was owner of Men of Valor Football and Speed Training, which provides individualized football training with the focus on speed and football development.

Forde graduated with a B.A. in sociology from the University of Buffalo in New York in 2003. He was a four-year letterman at wide receiver and kick returner at the University of Buffalo, where he was a MAC Scholar Athlete every season. Forde played wide receiver for the Tulsa Talons of the AFL in 2006 and 2007, and spent time in the NFL with the Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts as well as the Amsterdam Admirals with NFL Europe.

Forde and his wife Patrice reside in Tampa with their three children: Hannah, Jeremiah and Isaiah.

TONY HARDIE

COLLEGE SCOUT

Tony Hardie enters his second season with the Buccaneers as a college scout and first scouting the Mountain West region of the United States. Previously he worked as the team's combine scout covering the Southeast region for National Football Scouting.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hardie worked on the football staffs at Northwestern University (2010-11) and at the University of Chicago (2007-09).

Hardie served as the director of defensive quality control and defensive quality control/player personnel assistant with the Wildcats under Buccaneers current College Scout Bill Rees and held numerous positions on the Chicago staff, including cornerbacks coach, video coordinator, recruiter and defensive assistant. In 2010, he helped guide Northwestern to an appearance in the 2011 TicketCity Bowl.

Hardie graduated from Notre Dame with a Bachelor of Business in finance in 2007. He is single and resides in Tampa.

BYRON KIEFER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Byron Kiefer enters his eighth season overall and sixth season as a college scout in Tampa Bay's personnel department in 2012, having been a part of two NFC South division championships (2005 and 2007). This is his third season scouting the southeast portion of the United States for the Buccaneers, which includes Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama and Tennessee.

Previously, Kiefer was the Buccaneers' National Football Scouting representative, in which his focus was scouting players in the Southeast as well as working with the NFL combine, where he helped the NFL select invitees to the annual event.

He began his career with the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2005. In this role, Kiefer assisted in daily transactions and coordinated player tryouts. He also assisted in scouting other pro leagues, including NFL Europa, CFL and AFL.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kiefer worked in the University of South Florida football office during the 2003 season, assisting with football operations and recruiting. He also worked as a trade support associate at Raymond James Financial from 2003-05.

Kiefer graduated from Mercer University in 2003. He was a letterman pitcher at Mercer after also pitching at St. Petersburg College. Kiefer and his wife, Mirela, have one son, Tyson. They live in St. Petersburg, Florida.

TONY KINKELA

COLLEGE SCOUT

Tony Kinkela enters his fourth season overall with the Buccaneers and his second as a college scout. Kinkela is currently responsible for scouting the Western region of the United States after originally joining Tampa Bay as a combine scout, focusing on the NFL combine and working with the NFL in selecting invitees to the annual event.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent three seasons as the Director of Football Operations for the Tulane Green Wave from 2006-08.

During the 2004 and 2005 campaigns, Kinkela was the assistant director of football operations at Washington State. He also served as the assistant to the recruiting coordinator during the same period, coordinating on campus official and unofficial visits and oversaw the recruiting film system. As a member of the Cougars' staff, Kinkela was a part of Washington State's 2003 Rose Bowl and Holiday Bowl teams, and the 2001 Sun Bowl squad.

As a student at WSU, Kinkela served as a student assistant for the football team from 2001-04, and was a student representative for the NCAA Peer Review Board from 2001-02. A native of Graham, Washington, he received his bachelor's degree in sport management in 2004 and his master's degree in education administration in 2011 from Washington State. Kinkela resides in Bonney Lake, Washington with his wife, Merilee.

JARED KIRKSEY

COLLEGE PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Jared Kirksey enters his third season with Tampa Bay as a college personnel assistant in 2012.

Kirksey assists in the organization of the Buccaneers area scouts, including monitoring reports and serving as a liaison between the scouts and the personnel department while also providing in-house evaluations on college prospects. Additionally, Kirksey coordinates pre-draft visits and the organization of college free agents and rookie mini-camp.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kirksey spent two years with the Houston Texans where he served as the College and Pro Scouting Intern. During his time with the Texans, Kirksey was in charge of evaluating specialists (punters, kickers, long snappers) from all 32 teams around the league, among other numerous duties. Kirksey also worked closely with Texans General Manager Rick Smith and Director of Personnel Brian Gardner in evaluating free agents and the status of the organization.

Kirksey played collegiately at the University of Central Florida as a senior in 2007 after transferring from St. John's River Community College.

Kirksey is a native of Gainesville, Florida. His father, Larry, currently serves as the wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans.

BILL REES COLLEGE SCOUT

Bill Rees enters his second season as a college scout with Tampa Bay in 2012, having spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons with Northwestern University as their coordinator of player personnel/assistant director of football operations. Rees also worked the 2009 and 2010 offseasons as an outside consultant to the Buccaneers for the NFL Draft.

Prior to his time at Northwestern, Rees was a veteran of 15 years in the NFL, where he served as a scout for the Kansas City Chiefs (1994-97), the Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears (1997-2001), the Director of College Scouting (2001-03) and the Director of Player Personnel (2003-04) for the San Francisco 49ers, the Director of Player Personnel/College Scouting for the Cleveland Browns (2004-08) and a Pro and College Scout for the Chiefs (2008-09).

Before entering the NFL ranks, Rees spent 15 years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for UCLA from 1979-94. He began his career at Northwestern as a graduate assistant in 1976-77 before serving one year as an assistant coach for the Wildcats in 1978.

Rees is a 1976 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University with a bachelor's degree in history. He earned a master's degree in education administration from Northwestern in 1977. Rees and his wife, Susan, have three children: Danny, a graduate of UCLA where he was a two-year letterman as a punter/holder; Meghan, a graduate of Miami (Ohio); and Tommy, a junior quarterback at Notre Dame.

JUSTIN SHERIDAN COLLEGE SCOUT

Justin Sheridan enters his seventh season with Tampa Bay in 2012 and third as a college scout, having previously served as a pro scout with the club. He is responsible for scouting collegiate players in the Midwest and parts of the Northeast.

Sheridan joined the Buccaneers' staff in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant before being promoted to pro scout in 2008. As a pro scout, he was responsible for the evaluation of player personnel and scouting report preparation for Tampa Bay's opponents. He also monitored NFL transactions and assisted with the recruiting and signing of NFL free agents. He was part of the Buccaneers NFC South championship in 2007.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Sheridan spent two seasons as the director of football operations at Northwestern University, from March 2004 to June 2006. In his role, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program, serving as a liaison to the athletic department, business office, academic services, compliance and NFL personnel, among others.

Sheridan originally joined the NU staff as a recruiting assistant in July 2001 before being promoted to Assistant Director of Football Operations in February 2003.

Sheridan worked as the assistant director of football operations at University of Pennsylvania before joining Northwestern's staff. He also worked as an Assistant Coach at Western Maryland College from May 1999 to December 2000.

A native of Ebensburg, PA, Sheridan graduated from Western Maryland College (which is now known as McDaniel College) with his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in accounting. At WMC, he was a four-year letterwinner, playing on two Centennial Conference championship teams.

Sheridan and his wife, Kristen, live in Vernon Hills, Illinois with their two sons, Payton and Brooks.

SETH TURNER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Seth Turner enters his 13th season with the Buccaneers in 2012 and 8th year as a college scout. Turner is responsible for scouting the Midwest region of the United States after spending four seasons as Tampa Bay's national combine scout. During his time with the Buccaneers, Turner has been part of five playoff appearances, three division titles and one Super Bowl championship.

Prior to scouting the Midwest, Turner spent four years as Tampa Bay's scout for the annual NFL combine as well as a scout for the southeastern United States. In 2002, Turner was a part of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July of 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. In that role, he assisted in the evaluation of professional free agents and draft-eligible college players. He also served as one of Tampa Bay's representatives at the 2001 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department, as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a B.S. in physical education from Baker University in Kansas in 1997 and then earned a master's in sport management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker, garnering third-team all-conference honors in 1996 as a senior.

Turner, a native of Lansing, Kansas, lives in Columbia, Missouri with his wife, Ariana, and their three children: sons, Graham and Heath, and daughter, Belen.

MIKE YOWARSKY

COLLEGE SCOUT

Mike Yowarsky enters his second year in his second stint as a college scout for the Buccaneers, after spending the previous five seasons as the eastern region director of college scouting with the Seattle Seahawks.

Yowarsky is entering his 16th overall season on Tampa Bay's scouting staff, having spent another 14 seasons with the team as a college scout from 1991-04.

In his first stint with Tampa Bay, Yowarsky handled all scouting efforts of the southeast portion of the United States. Yowarsky's contributions proved vital in 2002, as the Buccaneers captured their first Super Bowl title in team history with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Yowarsky originally joined the Buccaneers in 1991 after spending the previous year as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Head Coach Steve Spurrier.

Prior to his time at Florida, Yowarsky spent 1989 as a teacher in Cleveland, Tennessee. From 1984-1985, he was a graduate assistant at Kansas and then served as a defensive assistant for the Jayhawks from 1986-88. Yowarsky taught in the Knoxville school system from 1983-84.

Yowarsky earned a Bachelor's Degree in secondary education from Tennessee, and his Master's in athletic administration and sports psychology from Kansas.

Mike has two daughters, Maclain and Bridger.

JAMES SORENSON

HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

James Sorenson, who first started working in the NFL in 1986, is in his seventh season as Head Equipment Manager with the Buccaneers. In 2007, Sorenson helped guide the Buccaneers to their third NFC South division title.

Sorenson is responsible for distributing all equipment and apparel to Buccaneers players and coaches, along with the purchase and inventory of all team equipment. He also maintains the locker room and oversees the transportation of the team's equipment for all home and away games.

Sorenson spent eight seasons as an assistant equipment manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1998-2005. He began his career in the NFL in 1986 as a ball boy with the Minnesota Vikings before serving as equipment assistant with the team from 1991-1997.

Sorenson earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biomedical Science from St. Cloud State in 1998. He and his wife, Alaina, live in Tampa with their daughter.

MIKE MYRICK

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Mike Myrick enters his fourth season as assistant equipment manager in 2012 and 10th season overall with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers equipment staff. In that time, he has been a part of two Buccaneers NFC South Division titles.

Myrick got his start in the NFL in 1992, working training camps with the Atlanta Falcons as a ball boy. That eventually led to his hire as an assistant equipment manager with the Falcons in 1997. Myrick also spent time with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe from 2000-04 as an assistant and head equipment manager.

Myrick's responsibilities include assisting head equipment manager Jim Sorenson with all department duties. Specializing in helmets and shoulder pads, he has a weekly maintenance routine that includes changing helmets to ensure they provide the best possible protection while keeping a high-gloss shine.

Myrick is a Florida native and resides in Wesley Chapel with his wife Angie and three children: Hannah, Anna and Michael Jr.

SPENCER DILLE DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Spencer Dille enters his first season with the Buccaneers in 2012 as director of football technology.

Dille is responsible for the development and maintenance of all football-related software and technology. He works closely with the front office, scouting department, trainers and coaching staff in the implementation of the latest technology and football-related applications. Additionally, Dille serves as a liaison between the information technology department and football operations, helping to troubleshoot a variety of technological issues on a continual basis.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent seven years (2004-11) with COMANCO Environmental Corporation, managing and developing their operational technology. From 2011-2012, he worked with Kobie Marketing, developing their loyalty management software platform. Dille received both his Bachelors of Computer Engineering and Masters of Computer Science degrees from the University of Minnesota.

Dille resides in Lithia with his wife Deborah, their daughter, Amelia, and their son, Erik.

TERRY COUSIN DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Terry Cousin joins the Buccaneers for his first season as director of player engagement in 2012 after spending the last two seasons as the director of player development with the University of South Carolina Athletic Department.

Cousin's responsibilities include implementing Buccaneer University, which involves helping players with continuing education, financial education, career transition and other off-field issues and facilitating the league's personal conduct policy. He is also the main liaison between the players and the club's community relations department, encouraging player involvement in charities and community activities.

While with the Gamecocks, Cousin focused on off-the-field activities of the student-athletes and served as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics, community outreach, and their personal lives as they transitioned in and out of college athletics. He also assisted in mental/life coaching, as well as providing a holistic approach to athletic development. During his time, he worked with athletes such as Marcus Lattimore (football), Jadeveon Clowney (football), Stephen Gilmore (football), Melvin Ingram (football), Chris Culliver (football), Shayla Mahan (track and field), LaKya Brookins (track and field), Robert Beary (baseball) and Michael Roth (baseball).

Cousin also served as the sideline reporter for the Gamecock radio broadcasts and did a regular feature on student-athletes for the Steve Spurrier Show. Cousin is an accomplished 12-year NFL (1997-2008) veteran, playing for the Chicago Bears, Atlanta Falcons, Miami Dolphins, Carolina Panthers, New York Giants, Jacksonville Jaguars and Cleveland Browns. During his playing career, he was named Defensive Player of the Week twice, was a part of a secondary that led the NFL in pass defense in 2001, was selected to the NFL All-Joe team in 2002 and played in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

A graduate of South Carolina, Cousin was a four-year letterman and was the 1993 Scott Sinclair Freshman Award winner. He also ran track from 1995-96. Cousin and his wife, Carmen, have two daughters, Zahria Sanoe and Zoe Milan.

TODD TORISCELLI

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE & PERFORMANCE

Todd Toriscelli enters his 16th season with the Buccaneers in 2012 and third as director of sports medicine and performance after serving as head athletic trainer for 13 seasons. He has been a part of four division championships during his tenure as well as the Buccaneers' first Super Bowl title, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Toriscelli coordinates the team's daily medical coverage and is closely involved in all performance parameters such as physical development and nutrition. Toriscelli and his staff have conducted research projects on dehydration and exercise in the heat in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute and most recently, completed a large research project on hamstring injuries and other injury-related topics among NFL players. He recently co-authored an article in the International Journal of Sports Medicine and has also published several other articles and lectured on topics related to sports medicine. Toriscelli was also named to the NFL Health and Safety Panel in May of 2011.

During Toriscelli's tenure, eight former Buccaneer assistants or intern athletic trainers have gone on to become head athletic trainers at the professional or major college level, including Jim Whalen of the New England Patriots and Reggie Scott of the St. Louis Rams.

Prior to coming to Tampa Bay, Toriscelli spent a combined seven years as a head trainer for Stanford, Miami (FL) and Kansas State. While with Stanford in 1995 and 1996, Toriscelli also served as the National Athletic Trainers Association's liaison to the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Toriscelli holds a bachelor's degree in Health Education and minors in Biological Science and Athletic Training from Ohio University (1984) and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine from the University of North Carolina (1985). In 2009 he was selected as a Distinguished Alumnus by the Ohio University School of Health Sciences and Professions.

Toriscelli and his wife, Chris, reside in Tampa with their son, Shane, and daughter, Jenna.

DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATION

Shannon Merrick enters his ninth season as the Buccaneers' Director of Rehabilitation in 2012. Merrick works directly with Director of Sports Medicine and Performance Todd Toriscelli to treat and rehabilitate injured Buccaneers players. In his first seven seasons with the club, Merrick has been a part of two NFC South division championships.

Merrick joined the Buccaneers after spending eight years as a site coordinator/rehabilitation director for HealthSouth in Melbourne, Florida. Prior to his appointment at HealthSouth, Merrick held athletic training internships at the University of Notre Dame (1989-90) and Indianapolis Colts (1988-89). While an undergraduate at Purdue University, he also served as a student athletic trainer from 1985-89.

Along with Tampa Bay's training staff, he has been involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Merrick earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training, pre-physical therapy from Purdue in 1990, and a master's degree in physical therapy from the Washington University School of Medicine in 1992.

NFL: 16TH YEAR

COLLEGE: VIRGINIA

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Originally entered the league as a third-round selection (66th overall) by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Is the only player in NFL history to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions in his career.
- His 27 career sacks are most by a cornerback in NFL history and first among all active NFL defensive backs.
- Only defensive back in the NFL since the merger (1970) to start each of his team's games for 11 consecutive seasons.
- Has started 199 consecutive games, the most by a cornerback in NFL history.
- His 199 consecutive starts are also the most among active NFL players.
- His 11 career touchdowns on fumble/interception returns ranks tied for second in the NFL among all active players and tied for fourth all-time.
- Selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game five times, following the 2001, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2008 seasons.
- Named to his fifth career All-Pro Team in 2006 (second team). Also earned first-team honors in 2001, 2004 and 2005 and second-team honors in 2002.
- Became first cornerback in NFL history and just seventh player all-time to record 20 career interceptions and 20 career sacks when he posted the 20th sack of his career at Carolina (12/11/05).
- Has nine Player of the Week Awards, including one in the postseason, the most in team history.
- Since joining Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers defense has finished ranked in the Top 10 in the NFL in total defense in 11 of his 15 seasons and in the Top 5 on eight occasions.
- Part of a defense that has ranked in the Top 10 in the NFL in pass defense in 12 of his 15 seasons.

- Became the Buccaneers all-time career interception leader in 2007, surpassing CB Donnie Abraham by intercepting his 32nd career pass vs. Washington (11/25/07).
- Posted a career-high 10 interceptions in 2001, which tied him for first in NFL and also marked a Buccaneers single-season record.
- Has scored 13 regular season touchdowns in his career (seven interception returns, four fumble returns, one return of a deflected punt, and one return of a blocked punt) to lead all defensive players in team history.
- Became first player in team history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in same game during regular season when he twice picked off QB Donovan McNabb (10/22/06).
- His career-high 120 tackles in 2005 surpassed his own team single-season record for most tackles by a cornerback (111 tackles in 2003 and 2004).
- Only cornerback in team history to record four consecutive 100-tackle seasons and six overall.
- His 1,337 tackles are most by a cornerback in team history and rank second overall in team annals.
- Made his 172nd consecutive start vs. New Orleans (10/17/10), surpassing Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau for the most consecutive starts by a cornerback in NFL history.
- Played in his 225th career game at Atlanta (1/1/12), surpassing Derrick Brooks for the most in team history.
- His 216 career starts rank second in team annals.
- Posted one of the most memorable and dominating defensive performances in NFC Championship Game history, forcing a fumble, posting one sack and sealing the win at Philadelphia (1/19/03) with a 92-yard interception return for a touchdown.
- On two occasions has corralled a team single-game record three interceptions, vs. New Orleans (12/23/01) and at New Orleans (12/4/05).

- x Has six career games with two or more takeaways.

2011 HIGHLIGHTS:

- x Started all 16 games at right cornerback.

- x Led team with three interceptions and was second with 11 passes defended.
- x Recorded first career safety.
- x Named a defensive team captain.
- x Recorded seven tackles vs. Detroit (9/11).
- x Registered sixth career game with two or more takeaways when he recorded his first interception and first fumble recovery of season vs. Atlanta (9/25). Added four tackles, including one for loss, and five passes defended. His five passes defended were his most since notching a career-high six in Week 2 of 2002.
- x Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honor for his performance in Week 2.
- x Tied for team-high with seven tackles in Week 6 win vs. New Orleans (10/16). Also recorded one pass defended and acted as sideline coach for position unit following in-game injury to Defensive Backs Coach Jimmy Lake.
- x Registered first career safety vs. Chicago (10/23) when he tackled running back Matt Forte in end zone in a game played at Webley Stadium. Recorded a total of five tackles, including three for loss, one sack and one pass defended.
- x Intercepted Drew Brees on first drive of second half at New Orleans (11/6) to set up field goal.
- x Posted seven tackles and one forced fumble, which led to a Buccaneers recovery, at Tennessee (11/27).
- x Recorded five tackles, one interception and one pass defended at Jacksonville (12/11).
- x Registered eight tackles and a quarterback pressure vs. Dallas (12/17).
- x Became franchise's all-time leader in games played with 225 at Atlanta (1/1).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL:

- x Finished Cavalier career with 15 interceptions, third-highest total in school history and just two shy of UVA record (17 by Keith McMeans, 1987-90).
- x Started all 36 Cavalier games and earned All-ACC first-team honors each of three seasons, including two bowl games.
- x Joined twin brother Tiki on all-conference squad as the two became just the third pair of brothers to gain that distinction in the ACC in the same year.

- x Also tabbed as the ACC's Freshman of the Year and was given UVA's Bill Dudley Award recognizing the team's most outstanding first-year player.
- x Graduated with a degree in commerce with a concentration in marketing.
- x Married to Claudia. Couple lives in Tampa with daughters Yammile Rose and Justyce Rosina.
- x Twin brother, Tiki, was a teammate at Virginia, an All-America running back and a 1997 second-round draft choice (36th overall) of the New York Giants (1997-2006).
- x Was voted by teammates as the Buccaneers' 2011 Ed Block Courage Award winner for his steadfast effort, achievement and leadership on and off the football field.
- x Served as a celebrity waiter for Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night fundraiser to benefit the IMPACT Foundation in February 2011 and 2012.
- x Along with Tiki, wrote a children's book titled "By My Brother's Side" that was released during the 2004 season. A second book titled "Game Day" was published in the fall of 2005 and a third children's book, "Teammates", was released in the fall of 2006.
- x Filmed a breast cancer awareness public service announcement that aired on Lifetime during National Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October 2007. Filmed the PSA to honor his mom Geraldine, a breast cancer survivor.
- x An avid golfer, he has played in seven of the past eight (2004, 2006-2011) Outback Pro Am golf tournaments.
- x Along with Tiki, made a $1 million gift in 2006 to their alma mater, the University of Virginia, at the launch of the University's $3 billion campaign in which the twins served as the emcees for the event.
- x Named to the 2003, 2005 and 2006 All-Interview teams by NFL.com.
- x Named to The Sporting News' 2003 and 2006 NFL's 101 Best Players List.
- x Rated as one of Virginia's top five prospects and shared Male Athlete of the Year honors in the state with brother Tiki.
- x Born Jamael Oronde Barber on April 7, 1975, in Montgomery County, Virginia.

CONNOR BARTH*KICKER*HT: 5-11 WT: 200*DOB: 4/11/86*NFL: 5TH YEAR*ACQ: FA, 2009*COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA*ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- x Signed by Tampa Bay as a free agent on November 3, 2009.

ORIGINALLY ENTERED NFL:

- x Entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs on August 30, 2008.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- x Set franchise record with a 92.9 field goal percentage (26-28) in 2011, shattering Steve Christie's 85.2 percent (23-27) in 1990. Barth's field goal percentage was second in the NFL, while his 88.2 rate from 40+ yards was tied for the league lead.
- x In 2010, converted 82.1% of his field goal attempts, the eighth best single-season performance in team history and registered 105 points, the sixth-best point total by a kicker in team history.
- x Kicked first career game-winning field goal at New Orleans (12/27/09), connecting from 47 yards in overtime.
- x Became the first kicker in Buccaneers history and just fourth in NFL history to make three field goals of 50 yards or more in one game at Miami (11/15/09). His 54-yarder against the Dolphins is tied for the fifth longest field goal in team history.
- x Went 4-for-4 on field goal attempts, converting from 50, 47, 46 and 44 yards, in the first half vs. Carolina (12/4/11). Became just the third NFL player in history to record four-plus field goals of 40 or more yards in one half.
- x Nailed a career-long 55-yard field goal vs. Houston (11/13/11), the third-longest in club history.
- x Recorded career-high 14 points (4FGs, 2PATs) in 26-20 win vs. New Orleans (10/16/11).
- x Kicked second career game-winner at Cincinnati (10/10/10), connecting from 31 yards with one second remaining in the game.
- x Had a season-long 53-yard field goal vs. St. Louis (10/24/10), while going 4-of-4 on field goal attempts against the Rams, setting a new career-high for FGs made and tying his career high for attempts.

- x Saw first NFL action with the Chiefs at N.Y. Jets (10/26/08).
- x Connected on nine straight field goals to begin pro career.
- x Owns three career special teams tackles.

2011 HIGHLIGHTS:

- x Converted 26-of-28 field goal attempts (92.9%) and all 23 of his PATs.
- x Made three field goals in 16-13 victory vs. Atlanta (9/25), with a long of 49.
- x Tied career high with four field goals, including three from at least 42 yards away, in 26-20 win vs. New Orleans (10/16). Also added two PATs to give him a career-high 14 points.
- x Was three-of-three on field goals, including two of at least 40 yards, at New Orleans (11/6).
- x His 55-yard field goal to close the first half vs. Houston (11/13) was a career long and fifth-longest in Buccaneers annals.
- x Converted all four field goal attempts (50,47,46,44) vs. Carolina (12/4), all of which came in the first half, joining him with Morten Andersen and Rob Bironas as only players in NFL history to connect on four field goal attempts of 40+ yards in one half.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL:

- x Saw action in 47 games at North Carolina where he converted a school-record 54-of-71 field goals (76.1%) and 103-of-109 PATs for 265 points.
- x Connected on a school-record 19 consecutive field goals.
- x Earned First-Team All-ACC honors as a senior, hitting 19-of-22 field goals and a team-high 78 points.
- x Named Second-Team Freshman All-American and earned honorable mention All-ACC honors.
- x Majored in communications.
- x Visited Oakhurst Elementary School, the Buccaneers' 2011 Play 60 Super School, to present a $10,000 Play 60 grant, speak on the importance of healthy nutrition, and participate in football drills with students in December 2011.

- x Hosted the team's "Kicking for Kids" event in February 2011 along with Raymond James Financial and presented $23,000 to local hospitals for his efforts on the field.
- x Helped surprise 30 families with tickets, gift cards, a shopping spree and more for the fourth and fifth annual Day of Giving events in December 2010 and 2011.
- x Spoke to over 100 youth football players from the Junior Buccaneers football program about the importance of schoolwork, making smart decisions and living a healthy lifestyle in September 2010.
- x Attended the Buccaneers Student Advisory Board culmination event in May 2010 to thank the students for their service.
- x Born Connor Thomas Barth on April 11, 1986, in Arlington, Virginia.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- x Signed by Tampa Bay on July 29, 2011 as an unrestricted free agent from Atlanta.

ORIGINALLY ENTERED NFL:

- x Originally entered the league as an undrafted free agent with the Atlanta Falcons on April 26, 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- x Played six seasons with Atlanta (2005-10) before joining Tampa Bay in 2011.
- x Has appeared in 112 regular-season games, recording 507 punts for 21,524 yards (42.5 avg.) and a 70-yard long, while placing 174 inside the 20-yard line.
- x A kickoff specialist in addition to holding punting duties, has recorded 503 kickoffs with 143 touchbacks in his career.
- x Has also appeared in two postseason games: one in 2008 and one in 2010, serving on kickoffs and as punter.
- x His 40.3-yard net average in 2011 set a Buccaneers record by 2.5 yards.
- x Set an Atlanta Falcons franchise record with five touchbacks vs. Carolina on September 20, 2009, and tied that mark again vs. Carolina in Week 10 of the season.
- x Ranked fourth in the NFC with 25 punts inside the 20-yard line in 2008 while helping the Falcons to a second-place ranking in opponent average starting field position following kickoffs (24.6-yard line avg.).
- x Helped Atlanta rank second in the NFC and second in the NFL in opponent starting average field position with a 25.5-yard line mark in 2007.

2011 HIGHLIGHTS:

- x Played in all 16 games and finished seventh in the NFL with a Buccaneers-record 40.3 net average.
- x His three touchbacks were tied for the third-fewest in the NFL among players with at least 50 punts.

- x Made his season and Buccaneer debut vs. Detroit (9/11). Punted five times for 261 yards (52.2 avg) and a 58-yard long, including one inside the 20-yard line. Had a net average of 45.4 and also recorded touchbacks on all three of his kickoffs.
- x In Week 2 at Minnesota (9/18) punted four times for 183 yards (45.8 avg), including one inside the 20, with a long of 52 and an 45.0-yard net average. Just two of his punts were returned for a total of three yards and Koenen's only punt to travel less than 45 yards was a 39-yarder that was fair caught at the Minnesota 10-yard line.
- x Also handled five kickoffs, with one being a recovered onside kick, two going for touchbacks and the other two leaving the Vikings starting drives at their own 10- and own 9-yard line.
- x In Week 4 vs. Indianapolis, punted five times for 220 yards (44.0 avg.), including a net of 44.0, a long of 57, and three placed inside the 20. Also notched three touchbacks.
- x Dropped three of his six punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line at San Francisco (10/9).
- x In Week 6 win vs. New Orleans (10/16), punted four times for 189 yards (47.3 avg.) and a net of 49.8. Three of the four punts ended up inside the 20, with a long of 58 yards. Also added four touchbacks on kickoffs.
- x Tied a career high with eight punts vs. Chicago (10/23), averaging 47.6 yards, including a 43.5-yard net average, and a season-long 65-yarder. Dropped three inside the 20-yard-line. Allowed Bears All-Pro punt returner just 33 yards on five returns (6.6 avg.).
- x Had career-high five touchbacks on kickoffs vs. Carolina (12/4) after placing all six kickoffs in end zone.
- x Punted four times for 204 yards (51.0 avg.), including a net of 47.3, placing one inside the 20 and a long of 59. All three of his kickoffs resulted in touchbacks.
- x Nailed a 59-yarder on only punt at Carolina (12/24), while also notching three touchbacks on four kickoffs.
- x Averaged 49.7 yards on three punts at Atlanta (1/1), including a 60-yarder, and two placed inside the 20, for a net average of 46.7.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

PRE-1974

TAMPA STADIUM DEDICATED (11/4/67) – Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0 in the first contest played in the facility. The 46,700-seat stadium costs $4.1 million to build.

FIRST PRESEASON GAME (8/10/68) – Washington defeats Atlanta 16-14 before a crowd of 42,000 in first NFL action at new stadium.

EXPANSION COMMITTEE FORMED (11/68) – Suncoast Pro Football Committee is formed with the purpose of securing an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay. The group functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce formally appoints the West Coast NFL Task Force headed by Tampa businessman J. Leonard Levy.

1974

TAMPA BAY AWARDED FRANCHISE (4/24) – Tampa Bay is awarded the league's 27th franchise. As part of the award, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.

MCCLOSKEY SELECTED AS OWNER (10/30) – Philadelphia construction executive Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon declines ownership.

CULVERHOUSE AWARDED OWNERSHIP (12/5) – Hugh F. Culverhouse, a Jacksonville attorney and real estate investor who had previously declined ownership of the Seattle franchise due to geographic reasons, is awarded the Tampa Bay franchise.

1975

TEAM NICKNAME ANNOUNCED (2/15) – After reviewing over 400 name possibilities, an advisory board announces the team's new nickname will be the Buccaneers.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL LOGO AND COLORS (4/15) – The team unveils a logo designed by Tampa Tribune artist Lamar Sparkman consisting of Florida orange, white and red.

STADIUM LEASE APPROVED (4/21) – The Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with the Buccaneers for use of Tampa Stadium. Three days later, the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 to approve the lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.

STADIUM EXPANSION BEGINS (7/9) – Ground is broken for the expansion of Tampa Stadium, financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.

MCKAY NAMED COACH (10/31) – John McKay leaves the University of Southern California where he had coached four national championship teams, signing a five-year contract to coach the Buccaneers.

BUCS PLACED IN DIVISION (11/4) – Tampa Bay is placed in the AFC West with the understanding that it will switch to the NFC Central the following season.

BUCS WIN FIRST OVERALL SELECTION (12/27) – In a drawing held prior to the Pittsburgh vs. Baltimore playoff game, Bucs owner Hugh Culverhouse is awarded the first pick in the following year's NFL college draft while Seattle receives the initial pick in the veteran allocation draft.

1976

VETERAN ALLOCATION DRAFT (3/30) – The Buccaneers stock their roster by adding 39 players through the NFL's veteran allocation draft.

FIRST TRADE ANNOUNCED (4/2) – The Bucs make the first trade in franchise history, acquiring former Heisman Trophy winner QB Steve Spurrier from the San Francisco 49ers for two players and a second-round draft choice.

SELMON DRAFTED (4/8) – Tampa Bay takes Lee Roy Selmon with the first selection in the NFL college draft.

INAUGURAL SEASON BEGINS (7/31) – In the team's first-ever preseason action, the Bucs lose 26-3 at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams at the L.A. Coliseum. PK Paul Rajecki's 18-yard FG goes down as the first points in team history.

FIRST PRESEASON VICTORY (8/14) – The Buccaneers win their first preseason game, defeating the Atlanta Falcons 17-3 at the Jacksonville Gator Bowl.

REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/12) – Tampa Bay loses its first regular season game 20-0 at Houston.

GREEN SCORES FIRST REGULAR SEASON POINTS (9/26) – In a 14-9 loss to the Buffalo Bills, K Dave Green connects on a 39-yard FG, posting the franchise's first regular season points.

FIRST REGULAR SEASON VICTORY (12/11) – The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for TDs and end 26 games of frustration with their first regular season victory, a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.

BACK-TO-BACK WINS (12/18) – Tampa Bay wins its second game in a row and first at home, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 17-7.

TAMPA HOSTS PRO BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Stadium is the site of the 1978 Pro Bowl.

DUBOSE RUNS FOR 100 YARDS (10/15) – RB Jimmy DuBose becomes the first Buc to rush for 100 yards in a game (109 yards on 24 carries) as the Bucs lose on the road to the Giants 17-14.

BUCS REACH .500 (10/22) – Tampa Bay defeats Chicago 33-19 to up its record to 4-4, but injuries ultimately cripple the team during the second half of the season.

1979

CULVERHOUSE BUYS CONTROLLING INTEREST (1/3) – Hugh Culverhouse purchases Marvin Warner's minority interest, thereby gaining control of the team.

PEAR BECOMES FIRST PRO BOWL BUC (1/29) – DT Dave Pear becomes the first Buccaneer to play and start in the Pro Bowl.

BUCS JUMP OUT TO HOTTEST START OF SEASON (9/30) – The Buccaneers lay claim to the best record in the league by beating the Bears 17-13 at Chicago and running their record to 5-0, the best start in team history and a franchise record for consecutive victories that would not be matched until 1997.

BELL REACHES 1,000-YARD MARK (11/25) – RB Ricky Bell becomes the first rusher in team history to reach 1,000 yards after compiling 101 yards on the ground in a 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings. Bell eventually finishes the season with 1,263 rushing yards.

BUCS CLINCH FIRST-EVER NFC CENTRAL TITLE (12/16) – The Bucs defeat the Kansas City Chiefs 3-0 in a torrential downpour in Tampa to win the NFC Central Division and earn the first-ever playoff berth in team history. Neil O'Donoghue drills a 19-yard field goal for the game's only points as RB Ricky Bell gains 137 yards on the ground.

SELMON NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (12/20) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes first player in team history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Selmon recorded 117 tackles, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and 11 sacks during the 1979 regular season.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST PLAYOFF GAME (12/29) – Led by RB Ricky Bell's 142-yard, two-touchdown performance, the Bucs defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 24-17 in their first-ever playoff appearance.

1980

BUCS FINISH ONE GAME SHORT OF THE SUPER BOWL (1/6) – The team's first playoff season comes to an end as the Bucs lose 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in the NFC Championship Game played in Tampa Stadium.

MCKAY GIVEN CONTRACT EXTENSION (1/7) – Head Coach John McKay is given a five-year contract extension. It is also announced that he will become the team's president upon his retirement from coaching.

SELMON BECOMES SECOND PRO BOWLER (1/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the team's second player to see Pro Bowl action.

TAMPA BAY MAKES PRIME TIME DEBUT (9/11) – The Buccaneers avenge the previous January's NFC Championship Game defeat (9-0) with a 10-9 victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Tampa Bay's first-ever appearance on ABC's prime time football series (Thursday night game).

BUCS RUN WILD IN WIN OVER GIANTS (11/2) – Tampa Bay running backs account for a team record 244 rushing yards (later surpassed) en route to a 30-13 victory over the N.Y. Giants.

1981

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS ATLANTA, MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE (12/6) – The Buccaneers, led by QB Doug Williams' season-best 336 passing yards, pull out a 24-23 victory over the Atlanta Falcons. The win is Tampa Bay's third in a row and places the team in sole possession of first place in the NFC Central.

BUCS CLINCH SECOND NFC TITLE IN THREE YEARS (12/20) – Tampa Bay wins an exciting showdown in Detroit, besting the Lions 20-17 and securing the NFC Central Division title. WR Kevin House reels in an 84-yard touchdown strike from QB Doug Williams and DT David Logan returns a fumble recovery 21 yards for another Buc score.

BUCS ELIMINATED FROM PLAYOFFS (1/2) – Dallas defeats the Bucs 38-0 at Texas Stadium.

PLAYERS STRIKE ANNOUNCED (9/20) – The NFL Players Association announces the beginning of the union's strike.

LABOR PEACE REACHED (11/16) – After a 57-day strike, the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association announce a settlement.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST MONDAY NIGHT GAME AT HOME (11/29) – After starting off 0-3, Tampa Bay defeats the cross-state rival Miami Dolphins 23-17, marking the first Monday Night victory at Tampa Stadium.

1983

BUCS REACH PLAYOFFS FOR THIRD TIME IN FOUR YEARS (1/2) – QB Doug Williams leads a fierce rally from a 17-point halftime deficit as K Bill Capece's 33-yard field goal in overtime secures the Buccaneer victory. The team wins five of its last six games, securing each victory in the final minute.

DALLAS ENDS TAMPA BAY'S PLAYOFF HOPES (1/9) – The Dallas Cowboys defeat Tampa Bay 30-17 in the first round of playoffs.

WILDER SETS SINGLE-GAME RECORDS (11/6) – RB James Wilder sets team marks for combined yards (239) and rushing yards (219) in a game, helping the Bucs break into the win column for the first time.

1984

TAMPA HOSTS SUPER BOWL XVIII (1/22) – The Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Washington Redskins 38-9 in front of a crowd of 72,920 as Tampa hosts its first Super Bowl.

WILDER RUNS FOR 172 YARDS IN WIN OVER PACKERS (9/30) – RB James Wilder carries the ball a record 43 times for 172 yards in leading Tampa Bay to a 30-27 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers. Wilder eventually goes on to record the best rushing season in Buc history, compiling 1,544 yards and 13 touchdowns on an NFL record 407 carries.

MCKAY ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION (11/5) – Head Coach John McKay announces his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The announcement comes one day after a 27-24 loss at Minnesota with the Bucs owning a 4-6 record.

MCKAY'S FINAL GAME (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the N.Y. Jets 41-21 in John McKay's final game as a head coach. He finishes an overall 171-128-9, including a 44-88-1 mark as the Bucs' head coach.

BENNETT NAMED HEAD COACH (1/23) – Hugh Culverhouse names former Atlanta Falcons head coach Leeman Bennett as John McKay's replacement.

SELMON PLAYS IN FINAL PRO BOWL (1/27) – DE Lee Roy Selmon plays in his sixth and final Pro Bowl. A herniated disk, which eventually required surgery, is discovered in his back at the game. The injury later forces Selmon to retire after missing the entire 1985 season.

BUCS RECORD FIRST SHUTOUT SINCE '79 (11/10) – Tampa Bay defeats the St. Louis Cardinals 16-0, marking the team's first shutout since 1979 (vs. Kansas City), and snapping a nine-game losing streak.

1986

SELMON'S JERSEY RETIRED (9/7) – In halftime ceremonies at the season-opener versus San Francisco, six-time Pro Bowler DE Lee Roy Selmon's jersey is retired. Selmon's number 63 becomes the first and only jersey in team history to be retired.

BENNETT FIRED (12/29) – Leeman Bennett is relieved of his position after compiling a 4-28 record as the Bucs' head coach.

1987

STRIKE INTERRUPTS SEASON (10/1) – The NFL Players Association calls for its second work stoppage in six seasons. After a 24-day strike in which replacement players were used in three games, the NFL and Players Union come to an agreement.

1988

TESTAVERDE PASSES FOR 469 YARDS (10/16) – QB Vinny Testaverde passes for the second-highest single-game yardage in franchise history (469) at Indianapolis.

BUCS DEFEAT EVENTUAL AFC CHAMPION BUFFALO (12/4) – Tampa Bay's win over the eventual AFC Champion Buffalo Bills is the first 10-5 score in NFL history.

1989

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS CHICAGO FOR FIRST TIME IN 13 TRIES (10/8) – The Bucs score 28 first half points (second most in team history) to end 12 games of frustration against the Bears before the largest crowd ever at a Bucs game (72,077).

BUCS COMPLETE SEASON SWEEP OF BEARS (11/19) – K Donald Igwebuike's last-second 28-yard field goal completes the first-ever season sweep of Chicago. The win marks the Bucs' first at Soldier Field in 10 years (9/30/79).

WR MARK CARRIER FINISHES PRO BOWL SEASON (12/24) – With six catches for 101 yards versus Pittsburgh, WR Mark Carrier caps off a Pro Bowl season in which he set club records of 86 receptions and 1,422 receiving yards.

1990

TAMPA BAY JUMPS OUT TO BEST START SINCE '79 (9/30) – After beating the Minnesota Vikings 23-20 in overtime, the Bucs run their record to 3-1.

PERKINS FIRED (12/3) – Head Coach Ray Perkins is relieved of his position after Tampa Bay drops to 5-8. Assistant Head Coach/Receivers Richard Williamson is named interim head coach.

1991

GIANTS WIN SUPER BOWL XXV (1/23) – The N.Y. Giants win Super Bowl XXV in thrilling fashion, beating the Buffalo Bills 21-19 at Tampa Stadium.

WILLIAMSON NAMED HEAD COACH (2/4) – Gay Culverhouse is announced as the team's new president, Phil Krueger is named general manager and Richard Williamson becomes the full-time head coach.

COBB SETS TEAM RECORD FOR RUSHING TDS IN A GAME (11/20) – RB Reggie Cobb establishes a team mark with three rushing scores in a 30-21 Buccaneer triumph over the Detroit Lions.

SELMON, BELL AND MCKAY HONORED (12/8) – DE Lee Roy Selmon, RB Ricky Bell and Head Coach John McKay are inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

WILLIAMSON FIRED (12/27) – Richard Williamson is relieved as head coach after compiling a 4-15 record.

1992

WYCHE NAMED HEAD COACH (1/10) – Former Cincinnati Bengals Head Coach Sam Wyche is named as Richard Williamson's replacement. Wyche becomes the fifth head coach in Tampa Bay history.

WILLIAMS INDUCTED INTO KREWE OF HONOR (9/6) – QB Doug Williams becomes the third player inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

COBB RECORDS FIFTH-BEST RUSHING SEASON (12/27) – The Bucs defeat the Phoenix Cardinals 7-3 as RB Reggie Cobb caps off the fifth-best rushing performance in team history (1,171 yards).

1993

BUCS SIGN NICKERSON AS AN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (3/18) – Former Pittsburgh Steelers LB Hardy Nickerson signs a three-year contract to become the Buccaneers' first free agent acquisition under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

NICKERSON EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (12/29) – After compiling a team record 214 tackles, Nickerson is voted as the NFC's starting linebacker in the Pro Bowl and later becomes only the second Buccaneer to be named AP All-Pro.

1994

CULVERHOUSE DIES (8/25) — Hugh Culverhouse dies of lung cancer at the age of 75. The team is placed under control of a three-man trust headed by Culverhouse's law partner Steven Story, along with Jack Donlan and Fred Cone.

MCKAY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (11/8) — Vice-President/Football Operations Rich McKay is promoted to General Manager.

RHETT RUSHES FOR 192 YARDS (12/4) — RB Errict Rhett records the second-best single-game rushing total in team history when he rambles for 192 yards on 40 carries (third-most in team annals) in a 26-21 victory over the Washington Redskins. Rhett eventually becomes the first Buc rookie to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,011).

BUCS SELL OUT SEASON FINALE (12/24) — The Buccaneers are defeated by the Packers 34-19 in front of the first sellout at Tampa Stadium in two years (11/15/92).

BUCCANEERS SOLD TO MALCOLM GLAZER (1/16) — Steven Story announces that, pending NFL approval, the Buccaneers have been sold to Palm Beach investor Malcolm Glazer for the highest price ever paid for a sports franchise.

NFL APPROVES SALE OF TEAM (3/13) — NFL owners unanimously approve Malcolm Glazer's purchase of the Buccaneers one day after the NFL Finance Committee gave its unanimous approval at the Owner's Meetings in Phoenix, AZ.

BUCS SIGN DRAFT PICKS IN RECORD FASHION (5/10) — With the signing of second-round selection S Melvin Johnson, Tampa Bay becomes the quickest team in NFL history to sign all its draft picks.

SALE OF THE TEAM IS FINALIZED (6/30) — Malcolm Glazer officially becomes the team's new owner after the sale of the team is finalized in Charlotte, NC. Bryan and Joel Glazer are named executive vice-presidents.

SELMON INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (7/29) — DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first Buccaneer inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame. Selmon is introduced by his brother and former Buc teammate Dewey.

BUCS MOVE INTO SOLE POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE (10/15) — K Michael Husted's 51-yard game-winning FG propels Tampa Bay past Minnesota and into sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division. The victory marks the first time since the final day of the 1981 season that the team has been alone in first place.

GRUBER MARKS RECORD START (11/26) — LT Paul Gruber makes his 118th career start, thus surpassing DE Lee Roy Selmon's team record of 117.

RHETT SURPASSES 1,000-YARD MARK (12/3) — RB Errict Rhett goes over 1,000 yards for the second consecutive year to become only the 12th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in his first two league seasons.

WYCHE IS FIRED (12/27) — The team announces that Sam Wyche will not return as head coach in 1996. Wyche leaves his post with a 23-41 record.

1996

DUNGY NAMED HEAD COACH (1/22) — Minnesota Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy is named as the Buccaneers' sixth head coach.

NICKERSON RE-SIGNS WITH TEAM (2/22) — LB Hardy Nickerson, the Buccaneers' Most Valuable Player in 1993 and '95, agrees to a four-year deal to remain with the team.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) — Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.

DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) — Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.

BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) — Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

1997

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) — LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) — The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) — The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) — The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) — C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) — DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) — After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) — By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's team playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

1998

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdome. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers — FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp — earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon turned the trick in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12 1/2 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players — FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a QB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears to just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two — giving him 13.5 for the year — as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) — Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) — John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) — Due to the terrorist attacks on America on September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) — Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) — For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) — During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) — In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

2002

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) — The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) — New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) — The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) — Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory.

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) — For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions—all in the second half—and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) — In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defended.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) — Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) — Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franchise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii; FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 136,320 square foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) – Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) – Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) – In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

BUCS EARN LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY SINCE 2000 SEASON (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the San Francisco 49ers 35-3 at Raymond James Stadium to post its largest margin of victory since the 2000 season. The Bucs defense limits the 49ers to 26 total yards and two first downs in the first half and finishes the contest surrendering just 197 total yards, while forcing five sacks and two turnovers. The offense is equally impressive, racking up 352 yards as RB Michael Pittman rushes for 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns.

CLAYTON SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORD (11/28) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton hauls in eight receptions for 77 yards in the Week 11 contest at Carolina to move into first place all-time in team history for most receiving yards by a rookie in a season. Through 11 contests in 2004, Clayton posts 60 receptions for 828 yards, surpassing WR Lawrence Dawsey's 818 yards as a rookie in 1991.

RICE RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK AS BUCS POST NINTH SHUTOUT IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (12/5) – Tampa Bay records the ninth shutout in franchise history with a 27-0 victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Raymond James Stadium. Buccaneers DE Simeon Rice records the 100th and 101st sacks of his career, becoming just the 22nd player in league history and only the second active player to reach the 100-sack plateau. The Buccaneers defense records five sacks and forces five turnovers, intercepting QB Michael Vick twice and forcing two fumbles by the Falcons signal caller.

TWO BUCS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/22) – The NFL announces that two Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber, have been selected to the 2005 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Brooks, who was selected for the eighth time to the Pro Bowl, becomes the franchise's all-time leader in Pro Bowl appearances, breaking a tie with former teammate DT Warren Sapp. Brooks' eight consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (1997-04) also establish a new team record. Barber is named to his second career Pro Bowl after making his first appearance in 2001.

BUCS CLAYTON SETS ROOKIE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (12/26) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton catches a career-high two touchdowns against the Carolina Panthers at Raymond James Stadium, moving him into first place for most touchdown receptions by a rookie in franchise history. His six touchdown receptions on the season surpass the previous rookie record of five touchdown catches by WR Kevin House in 1980.

BUCS SELECT CARNELL "CADILLAC" WILLIAMS WITH FIFTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/23) – The Buccaneers draft Auburn RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams with their first selection (fifth overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft. The selection of Williams marks the fourth time in team history that Tampa Bay has drafted a running back in the first round and the first time since 1997 (Warrick Dunn – 12th overall).

WILLIAMS SETS NFL RECORD FOR MOST RUSHING YARDS IN FIRST THREE GAMES (9/25) – In his first three games, Bucs rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams totals an NFL-record 434 rushing yards, becoming the first running back to begin his career with three consecutive 100-yard performances. Following his record-breaking performance, Williams' shoes and gloves are displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BARBER MATCHES OWN CLUB RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (12/4) – CB Ronde Barber records a career-high tying three interceptions against the New Orleans Saints in Baton Rouge, LA to tie his own club record. His previous three interception performance also came against the Saints in 2001. Barber goes on to finish the season with five picks to lead the Buccaneers and tie for seventh in the NFC.

BARBER BECOMES MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE 20/20 CLUB (12/11) – CB Ronde Barber records the 20th sack of his career at Carolina to join the 20 sack/20 interception club. He becomes the first cornerback in NFL history and just the seventh player all time to accomplish the feat.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/21) – The NFL announces that three Buccaneers, CB Ronde Barber, P Josh Bidwell and LB Derrick Brooks, have been selected to the 2006 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It marks Brooks' ninth consecutive selection to the all-star game, a team record for total and most consecutive appearances. Barber will make his third career appearance and second consecutive while Bidwell will play in his first career Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS NOTCH 100TH OVERALL WIN UNDER GLAZER LEADERSHIP (12/24) – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, the Buccaneers notch their 100th overall win since being purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. The contest, against the division rival Atlanta Falcons, features four separate occasions in which the score is tied and five lead changes. The epic battle is prolonged when Bucs running back Cadillac Williams scores from six yards out on a fourth down run with 31 seconds remaining in regulation that forces overtime. In the extra period, the Buccaneers block a potential game-winning Atlanta field goal before successfully connecting on a 41-yard attempt of their own with only 54 seconds remaining in overtime. The milestone win emphasizes a reversal of fortunes for the Buccaneers, who prior to being purchased by Mr. Glazer, won just 87 games in 19 seasons.

BUCS CLAIM SECOND NFC SOUTH CROWN IN FOUR YEARS (1/1) – Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the regular season to earn its second NFC South division title in four seasons. Tampa Bay and the rival Carolina Panthers finish the regular season with identical 11-5 records, but the Buccaneers claim the NFC South by virtue of a better divisional record. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history.

GALLOWAY SETS NEW FRANCHISE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/1) – WR Joey Galloway records two touchdown receptions in the season finale against the New Orleans Saints, giving him 10 on the season to establish a new franchise record. Galloway's 10 touchdown receptions best the previous high of nine, held by WR Kevin House (1981), WR Bruce Hill (1988) and WR Mark Carrier (1989).

WILLIAMS SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECORD FOR RUSHING YARDS IN A SEASON (1/1) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams finishes the season with 1,178 rushing yards to set a Buccaneers rookie record. His impressive rookie performance includes a team-record six 100-yard rushing games and three of the top 10 single-game rushing performances in team history.

BUCCANEERS DEFENSE FINISHES THE SEASON AS THE TOP-RANKED UNIT IN THE NFL (1/1) – Tampa Bay's defense finishes the season ranked No. 1 in total defense for the third time (1979, 2002 and 2005) in team history. The 2005 season also marks the ninth consecutive year (1997-2005) the Buccaneers ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, the longest active streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak since 1970.

WILLIAMS NAMED NFL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR (2/2) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams beats out LB Shawne Merriman of the San Diego Chargers, LB Lofa Tatupu of the Seattle Seahawks, LB Odell Thurman of the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year honors. Williams is selected by fans on NFL.com as more than one million votes are cast during the regular season and playoffs for NFL Rookie of the Week and Rookie of the Year honors.

BROOKS NAMED 2006 PRO BOWL PLAYER OF THE GAME (2/12) – Making his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, LB Derrick Brooks earns Player of the Game honors after ratapult an interception 59 yards for a touchdown to catapult the NFC to a 23-17 victory over the AFC in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS PLAYERS AND COACHES BEGIN WORK AT NEW HEADQUARTERS (8/21) – Arriving immediately after the conclusion of training camp in Central Florida, Buccaneers players and coaches move into the team's new 136,320-square-foot headquarters. Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 33 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 7,900-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches' studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area.

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) – Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber's two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) – With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant's kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) – In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) – After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior, against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) – With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) – For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) – Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) – For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defended to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection – both team records.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24) – A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

GALLOWAY REACHES 1,000 YARDS FOR SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON (12/31) – For only the second time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, a Buccaneers receiver gains at least 1,000 receiving yards in two straight seasons when Joey Galloway reaches that mark against the Seattle Seahawks. Galloway finishes the season with a team-high 1,057 yards after logging 1,287 yards in 2005, also a club-high. Prior to Galloway's two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, only Keyshawn Johnson achieved that feat, posting 1,266 yards in 2001 and 1,088 yards the following year.

BUCS SELECT GAINES ADAMS WITH FOURTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/28) – The Buccaneers draft Clemson DE Gaines Adams with their first selection (fourth overall) in the 2007 NFL Draft. The selection of Adams marks the first time since 1999 that the Buccaneers use their first-round selection on a defensive player. It is also the highest pick Tampa Bay has used on a defensive player since 1990.

BUCS UNVEIL THE LARGEST FLYING NON-US FLAG IN THE NATION (9/6) – The Buccaneers raise their new team flag, which measures over 4,000 square feet, at One Buccaneer Place following the afternoon practice. Buccaneers players and staff watch the flag ascend the 147.5-ft. pole on the west side of the team's headquarters as the team readies for its season-opening game in Seattle. At 80'x50' the flag is the largest flying non-US flag in the nation.

GALLOWAY SURPASSES 10,000 RECEIVING YARDS (10/21) – With his 46-yard receiving performance at Detroit, WR Joey Galloway surpasses 10,000 career receiving yards. He becomes the eighth active player and just the 28th player in NFL history to reach the 10,000-yard plateau.

GARCIA SETS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS RECORD (10/21) – Facing his former team, QB Jeff Garcia completes a single game team-record 18 consecutive completions against the Detroit Lions. Garcia has one of his best outings of the season, completing 37-of-45 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns against the Lions.

GARCIA'S CONSECUTIVE ATTEMPTS WITHOUT AN INTERCEPTION STREAK ENDS AT 197 (10/28) – QB Jeff Garcia begins his career as a Buccaneer by attempting 197 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, besting the previous team record by Brad Johnson, who went 187 consecutive attempts without a pick from 2001-2002. Dating back to the 2006 season, Garcia went 217 attempts without an interception in the regular season, the sixth-longest streak since 2001.

BARBER BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LEADER (11/25) – CB Ronde Barber intercepts his 32nd career pass to move into first place on the team's career interception list. Barber's record-setting pick comes off QB Jason Campbell late in the fourth quarter to help Tampa Bay preserve a 19-13 victory over the Washington Redskins.

CARTER RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK (11/25) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, DE Kevin Carter posts the 100th sack of his career, dropping QB Jason Campbell in a win against the Redskins. Carter becomes the 24th player in NFL history to reach the 100-sack plateau.

BUCS EARN THIRD NFC SOUTH TITLE IN SIX SEASONS (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the Atlanta Falcons 37-3 in Week 15 to earn its third NFC South division title in six seasons. Tampa Bay moves to 5-0 in its division for the first time since 1979 while clinching the sixth division title in team history and fourth since the Glazer family took over in 1995.

BUCS POST FIRST-EVER KICKOFF RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN (12/16) – It took 1,865 kickoff returns, but WR Micheal Spurlock records the first kickoff return for a touchdown in team history on his 90-yard return against the Atlanta Falcons. He is one of 140 players to have returned a kickoff for the Buccaneers. The historic return helps propel the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

GRAHAM SETS TEAM RECORD WITH SCORE IN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/16) – RB Earnest Graham, who began the year as a backup running back, scores a touchdown in his sixth consecutive game to set a new team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown. Graham's touchdown is his team-leading 10th of the year as he finishes the game against Atlanta with 22 carries for 79 yards and one touchdown.

GALLOWAY POSTS THIRD CONSECUTIVE 1,000-YARD SEASON (12/23) – With a 29-yard reception in the second quarter at San Francisco, WR Joey Galloway becomes the first player in team history to record three consecutive and three overall 1,000-yard receiving seasons while also marking the first time in his 13-year career Galloway accomplished the feat. It goes down as the sixth 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

BROOKS BECOMES TEAM'S ALL-TIME LEADER IN PLAYOFF APPEARANCES, STARTS (1/6) – With his start in the NFC Wild Card matchup against the New York Giants, LB Derrick Brooks becomes the Bucs all-time leader in playoff games played (11) and started (11). Brooks, who already holds the franchise record for most career regular season games and starts, surpasses former teammates FB Mike Alstott and LB Shelton Quarles, who each played in 10 career postseason contests.

ALSTOTT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT (1/24) – Arguably the most popular player in team history, FB Mike Alstott retires after a 12-year career. A second-round selection (35th overall) in the 1996 draft, Alstott ends his career as the club record holder in touchdowns (71), rushing touchdowns (58) and Pro Bowl appearances by an offensive player (six). His 432 points ranks third in Buccaneer history and he is the only non-kicker in club annals to surpass the 400-point plateau. During his career, Alstott amassed 1,359 rushing attempts for 5,088 yards (both second in team history) and caught 305 passes (third in team history) for 2,284 yards. Alstott played in 158 career regular season games as a Buccaneer, seventh-most in team history, with 137 starts, fifth-most in team history, and 10 playoff games (tied for second in team history) with seven starts, including starting at fullback in the Buccaneers' 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

GARCIA EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (1/24) – QB Jeff Garcia is added to the NFC squad for the 2008 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection in the annual all-star event for the Buccaneers. Garcia, the NFC's first alternate at quarterback, replaces Green Bay Packers QB Brett Favre. His appearance is the fourth of his career and first as a Buccaneer. It marks just the third time in Buccaneers history that a quarterback has been named to the Pro Bowl, joining Trent Dilfer (1997) and Brad Johnson (2002). Garcia finished the season as the NFL's seventh-rated passer (94.6) and ranked second in the league with a team-record 1.2 interception percentage.

BUCS SELECT AQIB TALIB IN NFL DRAFT (4/26) – The Buccaneers select Kansas CB Aqib Talib with their first selection (20th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft. Talib becomes the highest cornerback ever selected by Tampa Bay and just the second defensive back the Buccaneers have ever drafted in the first round.

ROOKIE SMITH SETS TEAM RETURN RECORD (11/2) – Buccaneers rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith sets a franchise record for the most return yards by an individual in a single game. Smith racks up 259 total return yards at Kansas City, including a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He becomes only the second player in team history to return a kickoff for a touchdown and the only player in team history to return a kickoff and punt for a touchdown as a Buccaneer.

GRUDEN BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH (11/2) – With the Buccaneers 30-27 overtime victory at Kansas City, Jon Gruden becomes the all-time winningest coach in Buccaneers history. The victory is his 57th career win as Buccaneers head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy for the most wins ever in franchise history.

FOUR BUCCANEERS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/16) – LB Derrick Brooks and rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith are selected to the NFL's annual all-star game in Hawaii. It marks Brooks' 11th selection, tops in team history and tied for second in NFL history for most Pro Bowl selections by a linebacker. Despite serving on the Buccaneers practice squad until Week 8 of the season, the undrafted Smith becomes the first kick returner in franchise history to be selected to the Pro Bowl and just the second rookie in team history, joining RB Warrick Dunn in 1997. In addition, Smith is only the third undrafted rookie free agent since 1970 to make the Pro Bowl. Named first alternates, CB Ronde Barber and G Davin Joseph, are later added to the Pro Bowl roster to round out the Buccaneers selections. It marks Barber's fifth career selection, moving him into a tie for fifth place in team history. Joseph's selection is the first of his career and marks the first time a Buccaneers offensive lineman is selected since 2000.

ANTONIO BRYANT NAMED COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/15) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, WR Antonio Bryant is named the 2008 Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News. Bryant finishes the season setting career highs and leading the team with 83 receptions for 1,248 yards and seven touchdowns.

BUCCANEERS DISMISS GRUDEN, ALLEN (1/16) – The Buccaneers dismiss head coach Jon Gruden and general manager Bruce Allen. Gruden coached the Buccaneers for seven seasons, compiling a 57-55 record during the regular season and 3-2 in the playoffs. Gruden led the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII and three NFC South Division titles. He leaves as the Buccaneers all-time winningest coach.

MORRIS AND DOMINIK INTRODUCED AS HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER (1/17) – The Buccaneers announce Raheem Morris as head coach and Mark Dominik as general manager in a press conference at One Buccaneer Place. Morris, who spent six of the previous seven seasons as a defensive assistant with the Buccaneers, is the youngest head coach in the NFL at the time of his hiring and the eighth head coach in team history. Dominik is the fourth general manager in club history after spending the previous 14 seasons in the Buccaneers personnel department in various capacities.

QB JOSH FREEMAN DRAFTED IN THE FIRST ROUND (4/25) – The Buccaneers select Kansas State QB Josh Freeman with their first selection (17th overall) in the 2009 NFL Draft. Freeman becomes the highest quarterback selected by Tampa Bay in the first round since Trent Dilfer was drafted sixth overall in the 1994 NFL Draft.

TALIB TIES FRANCHISE RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (10/4) – CB Aqib Talib picks off QB Jason Campbell three times at Washington to tie CB Ronde Barber's club record, which he accomplished twice. Talib finishes the season with five interceptions to tie for the team lead and establish a career high.

OWNSHIP

BUCS PARTICIPATE IN NFL INTERNATIONAL SERIES (10/25) – In just their second international appearance, and first during the regular season, Tampa Bay falls to the New England Patriots by a score of 35-7 as part of the NFL's International Series in London. A raucous crowd of 84,254, the largest to watch the Bucs all season, fill historic Wembley Stadium to take in the game.

PLAYERS

BUCCANEERS WEAR THROWBACK UNIFORMS, SELMON ENTERS RING OF HONOR (11/8) – For the first time, Tampa Bay wears its 1976 Florida orange throwback uniforms in a comeback victory over the Packers. At halftime, Buccaneer legend and Pro Football Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first inductee into the team's Ring of Honor as the organization also recognizes the Buccaneers 1979 playoff team with several members of the team in attendance.

MORRIS, FREEMAN EARN FIRST VICTORY IN COMEBACK WIN OVER GREEN BAY (11/8) – Making his first career start, QB Josh Freeman rallies the Buccaneers from an 11-point, fourth-quarter deficit against the Packers to give Head Coach Raheem Morris his first career victory. Freeman becomes the second youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970. Defensively, Tampa Bay records six sacks and three interceptions in a game for the first time since 1990.

2011 REVIEW

WINSLOW SETS NEW SINGLE-SEASON CATCH MARK BY A TIGHT END (12/20) – TE Kellen Winslow records six receptions for 93 yards in a comeback win at Seattle to surpass TE Jackie Harris for most receptions in a single season by a tight end in team history. Harris registered 62 receptions in 1995 before Winslow established the new record, finishing the 2009 season with 77 catches.

BUCS SHOCK SAINTS IN NEW ORLEANS (12/27) – Trailing 17-0 in the second quarter at New Orleans, Tampa Bay scores 20 unanswered points against the eventual Super Bowl champions to win in overtime on K Connor Barth's 47-yard field goal. The 17-point comeback ties for the second-largest comeback in team history and it also marks the first time in NFL history that a team that was 10 or more games below .500 defeated a team that was 10 or more games above .500. The defense limits New Orleans to 17 points, tied for the fewest by the Saints in a single game on the season.

WINSLOW SURPASSES GILES FOR MOST RECEIVING YARDS BY A TIGHT END (12/27) – With his team-high 76 receiving yards at New Orleans, TE Kellen Winslow moves past TE Jimmie Giles (786 in 1981) for the most receiving yards for a tight end in a single season in team history. Winslow finishes the season with 884 receiving yards.

RECORDS

FREEMAN ESTABLISHES NEW ROOKIE RECORD FOR SINGLE SEASON PASSING YARDS (12/27) – Rookie QB Josh Freeman throws for 271 yards in the comeback win against the Saints, moving him past QB Bruce Gradkowski (1,661 passing yards in 2006) for most passing yards in a single season by a rookie in team history. Freeman goes on to throw for 1,855 yards on the season.

2010

FREEMAN SETS ROOKIE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN A SEASON (1/3) – QB Josh Freeman throws his 10th touchdown pass of the season in the season finale against Atlanta to establish a new rookie record for most touchdown passes in a single season, surpassing QB Bruce Gradkowski, who had nine touchdown passes in 2006.

BARBER STARTS IN RECORD 172ND CONSECUTIVE GAME (10/17) – CB Ronde Barber makes his 172nd consecutive start against New Orleans, surpassing Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau for the most consecutive starts by a cornerback in NFL history.

BARBER RECORDS 40TH CAREER INTERCEPTION (11/21) – CB Ronde Barber picks off QB Troy Smith for his 40th career interception in a shutout victory at San Francisco to become the first player in NFL history to record 25+ sacks and 40+ interceptions in their career. Barber's 40 career interceptions are also tops in franchise history.

BUCCANEERS POST SHUTOUT IN SAN FRANCISCO (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the 49ers 21-0 to become the first team to shut out the 49ers in San Francisco since 1977. It also marks the Buccaneers' first shutout since December 5, 2004 against the Atlanta Falcons.

FREEMAN THROWS FIVE TOUCHDOWN PASSES (12/26) – In a 38-15 win against Seattle, QB Josh Freeman throws a career-high five touchdowns with no interceptions to become the youngest quarterback (22) to accomplish the feat since Dan Marino (22) on September 2, 1984.

BLOUNT SURPASSES 1,000-YARDS RUSHING (1/2) – RB LeGarrette Blount rushes for 66 yards in the season finale to finish his rookie campaign with 1,007 rushing yards, becoming just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards in a single season, despite just starting in seven games on the season. He also becomes just the third rookie running back in team history to finish with over 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

FREEMAN RANKS IN THE TOP 10 ALL TIME IN TD/INT RATIO (1/2) – QB Josh Freeman finishes the season with a 25/6 touchdown-interception ratio to rank as the ninth-best ratio in NFL history among quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in a season. He also becomes just the second quarterback in NFL history under the age of 23 to throw six-or-fewer interceptions in a season with 200+ attempts (Dan Marino – 1983).

BLOUNT AND WILLIAMS LEAD ALL ROOKIES IN RUSHING AND RECEIVING (1/2) – Tampa Bay becomes the first team in NFL history to have two different players, RB LeGarrette Blount and WR Mike Williams, lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards since 1968 (Cincinnati). Blount's 1,007 rushing yards and Williams' 964 receiving yards also lead the Buccaneers on the season.

WILLIAMS SETS NEW TEAM RECORD FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/2) – With his 18-yard touchdown reception in the season finale, rookie WR Mike Williams finishes the season with 11 receiving touchdowns to set a new franchise record for most receiving touchdowns in a season. His 11 touchdown receptions also lead all NFL rookies.

BUCS FINISH WITH 10 WINS, DESPITE STARTING 10 ROOKIES (1/2) – With a 10-6 final record, the Buccaneers become the first team since the merger (1970) to start 10+ different rookies in a single season and finish with a winning record.

10 WINS MARKS BEST SINGLE-SEASON TURNAROUND (1/2) – The Buccaneers' 10th win in the season finale against New Orleans, preceded by a 3-13 season in 2009, represents the best single-season turnaround in team history with a seven-game improvement. It also marks the biggest turnaround in the NFL in 2010.

BUCCS MATCH FRANCHISE-BEST ROAD RECORD (1/2) – The Buccaneers finish the 2010 season with a 6-2 road record, matching the franchise's all-time best road record established during the Buccaneers championship season in 2002.

PENN ADDED TO PRO BOWL ROSTER (1/24) – T Donald Penn is added to the NFC squad for the 2011 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection for the Buccaneers in the annual all-star event. Penn, the NFC's second alternate at tackle, replaces Green Bay Packers T Chad Clifton. His appearance is the first of his career and it marks the first time in Buccaneers history that an offensive tackle has been named to the Pro Bowl.

BARTH TIES NFL RECORD (12/4) – Against Carolina, K Connor Barth became just the third player in NFL history to make four or more field goals of 40 or more yards in one half (50, 47, 46, 44). The four field goals also tied a Buccaneers record for most in a half.

JOSEPH SELECTED TO SECOND PRO BOWL (12/27) – G Davin Joseph was selected to play for the NFC squad in the 2012 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It was the second time in Joseph's six seasons, all with the Buccaneers, that he was honored.

2012

BARBER PLAYS MOST GAMES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (1/1) – CB Ronde Barber plays in his 225th career game, all with the Buccaneers, surpassing former LB Derrick Brooks (224) for the most in team history.

BARTH COMPLETES MOST ACCURATE SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY (1/1) – K Connor Barth converts 26-of-28 field goals on the season, for a franchise-record 92.9 percent. That rate ranked second in the NFL. In addition, Barth was successful on all 23 of his PATs.

KOENEN MAKES MAJOR IMPACT IN FIRST YEAR (1/1) – After signing with the Buccaneers as an unrestricted free agent, P Michael Koenen compiled arguably the best punting season in franchise history. Koenen set the club record for net average (40.3) by 2.5 yards over the previous mark, while his 45.1-gross average was the second-highest total in club annals. Koenen also set team single-game record for highest gross average (52.2, min. 4) in his first contest as Buccaneer on September 11, against Detroit.

FOSTER LEADS ALL NFL ROOKIES IN TACKLES (1/1) – LB Mason Foster leads all NFL rookies in tackles. His 126 stops also led the team and were the second-most in franchise history for a rookie. Foster, who started the final 15 games at middle linebacker, also recorded four tackles for loss, two sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

Following the 2011 season, G Davin Joseph was selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. This was Joseph's second Pro Bowl trip, with the first coming in 2008. It also marked the third time in four years that a Buccaneers offensive lineman had been selected.

Before Joseph's selection in 2008, the Buccaneers had not had an offensive lineman make a Pro Bowl since the 2000 season in which both C Jeff Christy and G Randall McDaniel were chosen to the all-star game. Joseph and McDaniel also remain the only guards to be named to the Pro Bowl in team history.

BUCCANEER PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA – In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A. territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charlie Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However,

QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

TEXAS STADIUM (64,848)

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS – For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Coney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA — In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7 JANUARY 4, 1998 LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp punched RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

1999 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9 JANUARY 12, 2002 VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

2002 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Ricky Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

TAMPA BAY 48, OAKLAND 21
QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell “Cadillac” Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms’ 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near mid-field with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

2007 NFC WILD CARD GAME

N.Y. GIANTS 24, TAMPA BAY 14
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA – Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the lone Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 NFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon, the first and currently only Buccaneer ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice – and the team's first-ever draft selection – in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon took on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JIMMIE GILES

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

.....

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdowns during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to rank highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

Gruber will join Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, when he is inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as "The Crown Jewel of the NFL" by league insiders upon its opening, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay

Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Buccaneers Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2011 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

AMENITIES AT RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

GENERAL SEATING: After 22 years of watching Buccaneers football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19"-21" wide and with 32"-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds more than 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 600 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

CLUB SEATS: Raymond James Stadium also has over 10,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneers games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

LUXURY SUITES: A total of 195 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneers game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

CONCESSIONS: Raymond James Stadium has over 550 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 126 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

RESTROOMS/SERVICES: Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 88 restroom locations and a total of 1,073 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneers fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

MEDIA FACILITIES: The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. The dining area features a multiple-screen video wall, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

ESCALATORS: An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of three escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneers fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

TRAFFIC CONTROL: Patrons of events at Raymond James Stadium can be assured that their travel to and from the facility will be as time-efficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers is directed to ease traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 16 cameras constantly monitored by staff from TPD and City Traffic Engineering. They monitor all major intersections, traffic light cycles and newly installed cameras by F.D.O.T. that reach out beyond the immediate area. If problems arise, the flow of traffic can be instantly adjusted by adding time to stop lights or lane closures to avoid accidents.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

In an effort to expand and enhance the overall game experience at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers constructed a $3 million extravaganza called Buccaneer Cove. Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the majestic, 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s Pirate Ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew on game day who is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

MILLER LITE PARTY DECK

The Miller Lite Party Deck is an exclusive area in the south end zone where a select number of fans can watch the game from an awesome view. Fans are eligible to win a ticket to this private oasis where guests may enjoy complimentary Miller products on the deck. Winners receive a ticket and special pass to access the deck and Buc Dollars for stadium goods. All winners must be 21 and older.

BUCVISION

BucVision features two massive videoboards at each end of Raymond James Stadium.

The main attraction of BucVision is the sheer size of the two videoboards, each measuring 24 feet high by 92 feet wide, which is significantly larger than conventional NFL scoring systems.

In addition to viewing plays from three different angles at each end of the field, fans are also treated to simultaneous highlights from up to six games from around the NFL, before Buccaneer games, essentially transforming Raymond James Stadium into the world's largest sports bar.

BucVision is operated by more than 30 technicians. In addition to showing the network feeds, the system incorporates six in-house cameras that capture the festive atmosphere of Raymond James Stadium patrons.

The system also contains a sound system which enhances the gameday experience for general fans, club seat holders, and luxury suite patrons.

THE BEST IN THE NFL

Since opening in 1998, Raymond James Stadium has drawn rave reviews as one of the best playing surfaces in the National Football League. Tampa Bay's home stadium has ranked as the top turf in the League in five of the previous seven surveys, earning top honors in 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004 and 2006. In 2008 and 2010, Raymond James Stadium was rated as having the second-best natural grass field. For the 2010 survey, the NFL Players Association polled 1,619 active players from all 32 teams. Prior to 1998, the Buccaneers ranked first in both the 1994 and 1996 surveys for having the best playing surface in the League at Tampa Stadium.

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

In addition to Buccaneer Cove and BucVision, Raymond James Stadium offers numerous attractions to fans that make the Buccaneers gameday experience unlike any other in professional sports. Some of the attractions include:

- PRE-GAME BANDS - Eight bands perform for two hours prior to every game.
- ANIMATED PARROT - A "talking parrot" located on the aft of the Pirate Ship entertains fans prior to the game.
- PRE-GAME CEREMONY - During the National Anthem, a 125-person crew unfurls the largest United States flag among NFL team's across the playing field.
- FACE-PAINTING PIRATES - Face-painting pirates stroll the club level through the end of the first-quarter.
- BUCCAANEER BATTLE FLAGS - Each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's red zone, red flags that adorn the top of the stadium are raised while a 60-person crew waves red flags throughout the stadium as the Pirate Ship's cannons are fired.
- LIVE TV FEEDS - Over 1,300 HD TVs throughout the stadium including four 18x10 feet HD Video Walls.

stunning but it is also plainly symbolic. Simply put, everything that goes on through those doors is dedicated to one overriding pursuit.

Football.

The Buccaneers' facility opened for business in August 2006, just in time for the team's return from training camp. By the end of September, the entire organization had moved over from the former One Buccaneer Place, which had been its home since 1976. There are three full-sized practice fields out back; a 9,353-square-foot weight room in a separate building; a sprawling training area with the most modern tools for the team's medical staff; a 2,400-square-foot team auditorium fronted by an enormous video screen; a video control room that looks like the bridge of a spaceship; dozens of wired meeting rooms; a dedicated draft room, spacious coaches offices; a fully-contained kitchen and dining area; a locker room more than double the size of its predecessor and much, much more. The new One Buccaneer Place also houses all of the front office departments, including human resources, ticket sales, customer service, public relations, information technology, community relations and marketing.

One Buccaneer Place is the complete facility that the Buccaneers need to pursue their ultimate goal of Super Bowl championships.

ROOM TO BREATHE: THE LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at One Buccaneer Place covers 6,600 square feet – more than twice the size of the one it replaced – and looks even more spacious thanks to the vaulted ceilings, subtle lighting and lack of clutter in the middle. The locker room at the former facility needed two rows of back-to-back lockers in the middle of the floor to get every player into one, and those rows removed any hope of clear sight lines or walking paths.

In the new locker room, oak paneling accents are everywhere, lending a luxurious but comfortable feel to the room. The carpet returns the focus to the team; it is dominated in the middle by a huge version of the team's logo, measuring about 40 feet from one tip diagonally to the other.

The most noticeable feature of the room is its depth. One can walk in from the east end of the locker room, across the hall from an equally spacious equipment room, and feel like you're a Josh Freeman bomb away from the west end.

The lockers themselves are four feet across, wood-paneled, and have enough drawers, shelves and hooks to store any equipment a player might need, including a compartment at the bottom that neatly fits an ergonomic folding chair. Each locker is wired for power so that players can charge electronic equipment or play music.

Each locker is also equipped with a ventilation system and two large vents, one behind the low shelf where shoes are stored and one behind the top shelf where shoulder pads are kept. In addition to keeping the lockers smelling fresh, these vents also allow the players' shoes and pads to dry quickly.

The locker rooms are supported by a much improved shower and restroom area, as well.

The Buccaneers' headquarters, a 136,320-square-foot complex with every conceivable advancement related to the game of football, is an NFL landmark. Every player, coach and staff member who left the team's old and outdated facility became better equipped to do their jobs the moment they walked through the front door of the new facility.

The main building's entrance, wrought in steel and glass and backlit at night in red, is visually

At the former One Buc Place, up to 90 players often had to share four urinals, four toilets, four sinks and about five working showerheads. The current locker room has eight urinals, seven toilets, 14 sinks and 24 showerheads, all in perfect working order and all utilizing automatic sensors to cut down on wasted resources. Around the four walls of the beautifully-tiled shower room, there are also 12 mounted dispensers of shampoo and shower gel. The showerheads are equipped with high-pressure, adjustable nozzles.

Rows of sinks are set in black marble in front of long mirrors and sitting between the shower and the sinks are both a tiled steam room and a wood-paneled sauna.

Gone, too, are the days when players had to eat, play dominoes or read the newspaper at their lockers. Walk through the south doors of the locker room and down a short hall and you're in the Players' Lounge.

The lounge sits on the back edge of the building, facing the practice field with 27 windows stretching up to its high, vaulted ceiling. The room seating consists of black leather couches and chairs, several of them facing the gigantic entertainment center along the east wall. The entertainment center is fitted with five flat screen TVs. It also houses a sophisticated sound system, which is hooked up to speakers around the room.

For players to relax, the lounge is equipped with two customized Buccaneers pool tables, a bank of free-standing video games, several video arcade machines and tables at which to play cards or other games.

WIRED FOR EFFICIENCY: THE VIDEO EDITING SUITE

Everything in the Buccaneers' video department, located on the second floor of the team's facility, is wired for ease and efficiency. Every likely request by a coach or player has been planned for in advance.

In the main video area, which is raised a foot or so from the rest of the second floor to allow for intricate cabling under the floor, a long, three-sided deck of editing machines forms the central control area. Here, five editing stations allow for the rapid cut-up of game and practice footage. Every play in practice or a game is categorized and entered into the system, where it is instantly available to coaches and players all across the building.

There is a separate room for storage of current practice and game footage, as well as the department's servers. There is also another separate room, located just across the hall, that is used for storage of tapes from many years past.

Off the main video floor is a fourth room, about the same size and shape as the department's lone room back at the old One Buccaneer Place. At the current facility, this room of that size is used solely for the purpose of such side projects as printing labels, repairing equipment and stripping cable.

At the former One Buc, all these activities went on inside that little rectangle, wherever a piece of real estate could be found.

A PLACE OF HEALING: THE TRAINING ROOM

Todd Toriscelli, the Bucs' director of sports medicine and performance and head trainer since 1997, is an experienced veteran in his field, and insists that the team's medical area stay current with any advances.

The training room includes a large physician's room, allowing the team's attending physician the ability to see a player privately. There were no such provisions in the old One Buc Place.

The physician's room is off to the right of Toriscelli's office, next to the expansive rehab area, which looks like a slightly miniaturized version of the facility's impressive weight room. That, too, is something completely new for the training staff. At the old One Buccaneer Place, the rehab area was also known as "the weight room." Now, says Toriscelli, the medical staff is completely self-contained in terms of the equipment it needs to return injured players to health.

Players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room. The team has gone from three metal tubs to three large pools – one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill.

The hydro room is to the left of Toriscelli's office, past additional large offices for his assistants. In the middle of all of this is the main training area, with a dozen large taping tables and all manner of related equipment.

A REAL STRENGTH: THE WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at the Bucs' headquarters happens to be its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway. The very first time it opened its doors for an official team workout, two-thirds of the team was waiting to use it. That would not have been remotely possible at the old headquarters.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

In the past, as the Bucs have moved from one coaching staff to another and one strength and conditioning leader to another, the weight room's overriding philosophy has changed. One strength and conditioning coach might favor free weights over machines and stock only those; the next coach might believe in the opposite and clear out the weights to make room for new machines.

The Bucs' current program, under Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Jay Butler, doesn't limit its scope. Tampa Bay players have access to weights and machines, and to coaches who are eager to devise specific regimens that will work for specific individuals.

The team also wants to encourage strength training by giving the weight room a very inviting atmosphere. As such, it has been fitted with an impressive sound system, a must in any workout area. Also, the wall that faces the field is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and uplifting.

AT YOUR FINGERTIPS: STATE-OF-THE-ART MEETING ROOMS

The NFL is a fully-wired world these days, and that concept is executed to perfection by the state-of-the-art technology that traces through the Buccaneers' headquarters like a nerve system.

That is certainly true in the player meeting rooms, which occupy a good portion of the ground floor, stretching around two sides of the locker room. Coaches and players have gone from cramped, multi-purpose rooms with outdated equipment to spacious, position-specific areas outfitted with an incredibly efficient system for the sharing of information.

It starts in the back of each room, where a desk system called the XOS Coach's Command Station is situated. It might be the most aptly-named piece of equipment in the building, because it looks as if it was lifted right from the bridge of a science fiction spaceship. It doesn't have force fields or phasers, but it does allow a coach to run his meeting at warp speed.

The Coach's Command Station is fitted with five possible methods of output: a Betacam deck, a document camera, a DVD/VCR combo deck, an DVSPORT PC link and a guest PC hookup. Seated behind his curved and compact desk, the coach controls all of these possibilities with a single remote and can flick quickly from one to the next. Whatever he chooses to share with his players is instantly displayed on a huge screen at the front of the room.

On the right side of the desk is a gray console with a small screen showing his touch options. The universal remote, set up in a way familiar to the coaches from the systems they've worked on for years, is also on the right. With these two devices, a coach can quickly take his players through any splice of footage he needs them to see, from practices, Bucs games or opponents' games.

The system already includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

Sometimes, too, a coach wishes to draw up a few Xs and Os. For generations, that's been done on a blackboard or a greaseboard. Now, with a flick of a switch, a coach can whip up any diagram while seated at his command station and share it instantly with his players.

That's possible through the aforementioned document camera, which looks like a futuristic cross between a desk lamp and a telephone. The lead arm of the doc cam is aimed down at the coach's desk, and anything slid underneath it is projected with extreme clarity on the same huge screen used to watch cutups.

Every coach also has his own spacious office on the second floor, where he can access the same cut-up footage and assemble reels of whatever subject he wishes. Those reels can then be accessed virtually anywhere in the football side of the building.

One Buccaneer Place consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a state-of-the-art media studio for press conferences, which includes a podium that can be adjusted to the height of any speaker.

What is One Buc's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defended, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Antonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defended against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney

Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Otis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB

Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM'S NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for some public figure or local sports legend, but rather a thriving diversified financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg – Raymond James Financial.

The company has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and will continue as the named sponsor through at least 2015. Raymond James is the official investment services and financial planning provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The firm's name actually comes from the 1962 merger of two financial service companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments – and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a full understanding of each client's situation and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), Raymond James is a multinational company with distinct business units that serve a variety of clients, from individuals and small business owners to municipalities and major corporations.

RAYMOND JAMES & THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS TEAM UP TO HELP OTHERS

Raymond James Financial believes in giving back to the communities in which its associates live and work. A leader in this regard, Raymond James has been recognized for its philanthropy and community support by such organizations as the National Business Committee for the Arts and the United Way of Tampa Bay.

The company is also actively involved with other charitable organizations, with specific focus on education and the arts. In addition, Raymond James associates are generous with their funds, time and leadership. Many are involved in organizations across the country, from civic clubs and schools to chambers of commerce and social service organizations.

During the football season, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up for two charitable programs: Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 13th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes funds to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $204,000 for children's hospitals in cities across the country where the Buccaneers have played.

SACK HUNGER

Since the 2000 season, Raymond James and the Glazer Family Foundation have worked to “sack hunger” by stocking Tampa Bay-area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday. This effort has collected more than 117.5 tons of nonperishable food items along with funding to provide approximately 227,430 meals for families through special drives and game-day collections at the stadium.

This year's annual Sack Hunger game-day food drive will have an expanded holiday theme and will be held on December 9, 2012, prior to the Buccaneers vs. Philadelphia game. Visit sackhunger.com to learn more.

THE TOM AND MARY JAMES/RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL ART COLLECTION

A deep appreciation for the arts permeates Raymond James' culture and is reflected at the firm's corporate headquarters, where more than 1,800 works of art are on display as part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com. Tours of the art displayed at the Raymond James international headquarters can also be arranged.

In addition to sponsoring several art shows each year, such as the renowned Raymond James Gasparilla Festival of the Arts, the firm is also a major supporter of the Florida Orchestra, Dali Museum, Morean Arts Center's Chihuly Collection and the American Stage Theatre Company.

Raymond James is also a continuing sponsor of the American Stage Theatre Company and its theater in downtown St. Petersburg – the Raymond James Theatre. The company hopes its actions will help encourage others – corporations and individuals – to support not only live theater, but all forms of artistic expression.

June 2009

- Raymond James ranked top full-service broker for the second consecutive year in the 2009 SmartMoney Annual Broker Survey<sup>1</sup>.

September 2008

- Raymond James ranked Highest in Employee Advisor Satisfaction among Financial Investment Firms in a tie<sup>7</sup> by J.D. Power and Associates.

July 2008

- Raymond James ranked Highest in Investor Satisfaction with Full Service Brokerage Firms<sup>8</sup> by J.D. Power and Associates.

<sup>1</sup> SmartMoney does not endorse any product or service of Raymond James. The survey criteria included performance of recommended stocks, customer satisfaction, and user-friendliness of account statements and websites. Past performance may not be indicative of future results. Please note that fees and charges will reduce an investor's return.

<sup>5</sup> Research magazine's Advisor Hall of Fame qualifications included a minimum of 15 years in the industry, substantial assets under management, demonstration of superior client service and recognition from their peers and the broader community for the honor they reflect on their profession.

<sup>7</sup> Raymond James received the highest numerical score for employee advisor satisfaction among financial investment firms in the proprietary J.D. Power and Associates 2008 Financial Advisor Satisfaction Study<sup>SM</sup>. Study based on 3,124 total responses measuring 19 investment firms and measures employee satisfaction of investment firms. ## WTSP

It's time for Bucs football, and WTSP, 10 News, is once again proud to be Tampa Bay's home for pre-season games in 2012. This season, 10 News is producing all four preseason games in stunning high definition. Home games against the Tennessee Titans and New England Patriots, as well as road contests against the Miami Dolphins and the Washington Redskins, highlight WTSP's top-flight coverage. Buccaneers fans with high definition television sets can tune to WTSP-DT Channel 10.1 to see all the action in wide screen with lifelike clarity. Cable subscribers are advised to check local listings for HD service detail. Standard Definition viewers will also benefit with higher resolution video and improved audio.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his ninth season in the broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and recently hosted the Chris Myers Football Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers, who was born in Florida, began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Former Buccaneer great John Lynch will join Chris Myers in the broadcast booth during the preseason for the fourth year. One of the most respected players in team history, Lynch retired in 2008 after 15 years in the NFL. After enjoying his first season in the broadcast booth in 2009, Lynch will be returning as an analyst on The NFL on Fox for regular season games in 2012.

A nine-time Pro Bowler, Lynch entered the league as a third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1993 NFL Draft. He spent his first 11 seasons with the Buccaneers before joining the Denver Broncos for four seasons. Lynch played in 224 career games with 191 starts during his career, finishing his career with 1,277 tackles, 26 interceptions, 13 sacks, 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 100 passes defended.

A captain on the Buccaneers Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch still ranks fifth in games played, sixth in games started, fifth in tackles and sixth in interceptions in Buccaneer history.

Dave Wirth, who serves as WTSP's main sports anchor will be the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. He has been covering Tampa Bay sports for more than 26 years, including reporting on major stories such as the Bucs winning Super Bowl XXXVII and the Lightning winning the Stanley Cup in 2004. In addition to sports anchoring for 10 News, Dave hosted the Devil Rays Magazine on SportsChannel Florida, and Fox Sports Net Florida, from the Rays inception in 1996 until 2002. He also hosted the pre-game show, on the Rays first minor-league game, and served as a panelist on the popular Sunday Morning Pro Football Show, on SportsChannel Florida.

Wirth was also play by play announcer and color analyst for USF Basketball on SportsChannel Florida, and Fox Sports Net Florida, and was a play-by-play announcer and color analyst, for selected USF Baseball and woman's basketball games on SportsChannel Florida.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

DAVE MOORE

T.J. RIVES

In its ninth year, Clear Channel's US 103.5 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network. US 103.5 will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. Clear Channel will also simulcast Buccaneers football on its sister station, 620 WDAE-AM.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 24th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 24 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the fifth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball since 1979.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a 13-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Dave Moore, former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end, enters his sixth season as color analyst with the Buccaneers Radio Network.

Moore spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Buccaneers. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns. He also made a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006.

T.J. Rives begins his eighth season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Rives is a radio and television veteran of the Tampa Bay area and nationally for the last 20 years. During the 2012 season, Rives will host the Greg Schiano Radio Show on Monday nights. He graduated with a degree in broadcasting from the former Memphis State University.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action -- including pre-game, halftime and post-game -- are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

BUCCANEERS.COM

THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS' HOME ON THE WEB

Since its launch in 1999, Buccaneers.com has emerged as the definitive source for information, entertainment, video, photography, game coverage and locker-room access regarding the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In May 2010, the Buccaneers teamed with the NFL to launch a new fully integrated and interactive website which allows the team to also have access to NFL Network content. The site continues to be on the cutting-edge of internet sports coverage and provides fans direct access to the site's most popular features.

Buccaneers.com hosts updated news, video and photos, contests, interactive opportunities and a fan message board. Visit the site and watch Head Coach Greg Schiano's weekly press conference stream live each Monday.

A special media section includes dozens of items to help print, radio, television and Internet sources perform their jobs and keep football fans in the know.

Buccaneers.com remains the only source of up-to-the-minute information for Buccaneers fans.

CHEERLEADERS

Since 1976 the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have charmed the team's avid fans, performed to worldwide acclaim, and cheered the team to a Super Bowl Championship.

The 28 to 34 women that comprise the squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year to represent the team and include athletes, educators, professionals, students and mothers. These talented women are committed both to the team and the community, making a large number of appearances for both corporate and non-profit events throughout their term.

In addition to their work within the Tampa Bay Area, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders also serve as ambassadors for the organization throughout the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Canada, Egypt, Japan, Europe, Australia, California, Texas and Hawaii.

CATHERINE BOYD

CHEERLEADING/MASCOT MANAGER

Catherine Boyd enters her 10th season overall with the Buccaneers Cheerleaders. Her first five seasons with the team were as a performing member of the squad. During this tenure, she was team captain, the 2003 Pro Bowl representative and a Talent Troupe member, which allowed her to travel the world as an ambassador of the NFL. In 2008, Boyd was hired as Cheerleading Assistant and was promoted to Cheerleading/Mascot Manager in 2010.

Boyd handles the squad's day-to-day operations as well as auditions, rehearsals and preparation of the pre-game and sideline dance routines. In addition, she oversees the team's mascot, Captain Fear, and the Pewter Pirates, a Crewe that invades the Buccaneers' end zone each time the team scores a touchdown.

Boyd has over 20 years of dance experience and holds a Bachelor of Communications Sciences and Disorders from The University of South Florida. She resides in Tampa with her husband, Nate.

MELISSA VALDEZ FITZGERALD

CHEERLEADING COORDINATOR

Melissa Valdez Fitzgerald is currently entering her fifth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and her third as Cheerleading Coordinator. She has over 30 years of dance training and has been involved with professional cheerleading for 18 years.

Valdez Fitzgerald was a member of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders for six seasons as a cheerleader, team captain, show group member and member of the All-Star team. She was also selected as a Pro Bowl Cheerleader and DCC Veteran of the Year in 2002 and cheered for two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers Gold Rush, later being offered an assistant director's position in 2005.

Working with e2k Sports in San Francisco, Valdez Fitzgerald helped produce multiple events including the 2005 United Way Thanksgiving Halftime Show, 2006 NFL Pro Bowl and all San Francisco 49ers game days. Recently, she worked as the 2010 Pro Bowl Cheerleader Coordinator with the Miami Dolphins.

MEDIA POLICIES AND GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department at (813) 554-1311. Phone interviews should be arranged in advance and are subject to availability. Head Coach Greg Schiano will address the media directly after practices and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with the opposing team media. Schiano will also have a regularly scheduled day-after-game press conference. Please contact Buccaneers PR for details.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers' locker room is open for accredited media each Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Times for the open locker room session are available by contacting the PR department. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays.

Practice Regulations: Times for the team's weekly practices are available by calling the Buccaneers' PR department. [All practices are closed to the public. Media, still photographers and videographers may attend approximately the first 30 minutes of practice.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' PR department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a freelance basis unless the request is made by an approved publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted via the Buccaneers' media site at <http://media.buccaneers.com>. Contact Kelly Schutz with any questions regarding credentials.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release, including updated statistics, player bios, etc., may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the media site. The team's weekly injury report can be found in the same locations.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. The media will call is staffed beginning four hours prior to kickoff. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Sandra Jones of CenturyLink (800-471-1139) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline.

NOTE: Unless previously arranged, no interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.

In 2010, the Foundation helped create a new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders: the Glazer Children's Museum.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened on September 25, 2010 along the waterfront in downtown Tampa. The 53,000 square-foot building is not just a museum, but a place with activities, games and challenges that allows children to learn in an exciting, stimulating environment. The world-class facility has already hosted hundreds of thousands of visitors and been honored both locally and nationally for educational excellence and economic impact. In 2012, the Tampa Bay Business Journal named the Glazer Children's Museum as its Arts, Culture and Humanities "Nonprofit of the Year."

A combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs and special events provide children, parents, caregivers and teachers with a rich and ever-changing atmosphere for playful learning. Kids can enjoy more than 170 unique, interactive exhibits called 'Interactivities' throughout 12 differently-themed areas committed to education and imagination. Children can pretend to be airplane pilots, cruise ship captains, construction workers, fire fighters, doctors and more in a safe, engaging environment.

Having established impactful partnerships with schools, nonprofit organizations and civic leaders, the Glazer Children's Museum serves as an invaluable resource to the community. A main attraction in downtown Tampa and a destination for local residents, regional visitors and tourists, the Museum is in a class all its own. For hours of operation, directions and more information, visit www.GlazerMuseum.org.
